THE ROSSOW SETTLEMENT.

ORIGINAL ROSSOW MIDGETS TO RETAIN TITLE.

The suit brought by the Rossow Midgets against Herman Rossow, before Judge Downing, in the Supreme Court, was satisfactorily settled last week.

By the terms of the settlement there is to be a division of all moneys deposited by Herman Rossow, in trust for Franz and Carl Rossow, Mr. Rossow receiving one-half and the other half is to be divided between Franz and Carl. The ownership of the farm at Sheby, Ind., purchased by Mr. Rossow for Carl, is vested equally in these two parties, while the house at Neundorf, Saxony, built by Mr. Rossow on property owned by the mother of Franz and Carl, becomes the sole property of Franz, Carl and their mother.

Franz and Carl are also given the sole right to the title of the "Original Rossow Midgets," while Mr. Rossow, should he desire to manage other midgets, is not allowed to use any title which incorporates the word "original," except as applying directly to Mr. Rossow's name and not to the name of any midgets he may hereafter manage.

The original Rossow Midgets have secured bookings at the Percy Williams theatres, opening at the Orpheum, Brooklyn, N. Y., March 22.

"The Conflict" for the Garden.

The next attraction at the Garden Theatre, New York City, commencing Monday, March 29, will be Paul H. Liebler's production of "The Conflict," by Maurice V. Samuels. The play is based on Balzac's "La Peau de Chagrin."

Robert Drouet, Helen Robertson, Florence Lester, N. Sheldon Lewis, Harry Leighton, Romaine Fielding, Harry E. de Laseux and Helen Beresford will play principal parts.

"Girl From Rector's" to Invade Chicago.

Al. H. Woods has signed several important players for his Chicago "The Girl From Rector's" Company, among them Vivian Blackburn, who will play the part, Angelica, the maid; Harriet Raymond for the part of Louie; Etienne Girardot, for the part of the professor, and Beatrice Lasca Durnell, for one of the principal feminine roles.

AN IMPORTANT MOVING PICTURE DECISION.

UNITED STATES COURT STOPS "BEN-HUR" PICTURES.

By a decision rendered last week in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, a moving picture exhibition is held to be a stage representation violative of the rights of the author's copyrighted book.

The question arose in a suit brought by Klaw & Erlanger and Harper & Brothers against the Kalem Co., to enjoin the moving picture exhibition of "Ben-Hur." The Kalem Co., which is a member of the moving picture trust, admitted that the scenes which were being exhibited were taken from General Lew Wallace's book, "Ben-Hur," but it urged, through its counsel, Drury W. Cooper, that the representation was only an exhibition of pictures and not a dramatic performance, under the copyright law, and that in any event the statute was unconstitutional which sought to prevent moving pictures, because it was not a "writing" within the meaning of the constitution which vested in Congress the power to secure to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their writings.

Klaw & Erlanger and Harper & Brothers were represented by John Larkin and David Gerber, and it was shown that over five hundred different theatres were giving exhibitions of "Ben-Hur" throughout the country, and while they conceded that the questions presented had never been decided in this country, because the moving picture was a matter of recent discovery and development, still as an author was protected in the story which he originated, any method of conveying to the public that story, whether in pantomime, dialogue or by means of moving pictures, was a violation of the author's exclusive right to his origination.

The Circuit Court of Appeals held that in order to give a moving picture exhibition it was necessary to take the novel of the author and prepare a synopsis or story, which was in effect a dramatization, and that the author alone had the right to make or authorize a dramatization, and that therefore a moving picture exhibition of a story of an author violated the author's exclusive right secured to him by his copyright.

Alice Ives Writing Vaudeville Sketches.

Alice Ives, the playwright, and author of "The Village Postmaster," has been having considerable success with her short sketches. The last one to be produced has the timely title, "Brain Storms," and that sparkling actress, Lavinia Shannon, has "made good" in it, starting on the Orpheum circuit at Cincinnati. Miss Ives should continue in this sort of writing, for her experience in the work should insure successes all along the line.

Percy Williams to Be Honored by Friars.

The Friar Governors have decided to give two dinners in April. The first will be held on April 4, at the Hotel Astor, and will be tendered to the officers of the Yankton.

The second dinner, April 25, at the Astor, will be given in honor of Percy Williams, the vaudeville manager.

Grand, Wallace, Idaho, a New Vaudeville House.

The Grand, a vaudeville theatre, at Wallace, Idaho, has been opened by W. A. Simmons and Eldore Harmon. The house has seats for 300, and is on the Panhandle and Clark circuits. Wallace now has three theatres.

Jack Haverly's Widow in Sore Need of Assistance.

Word has reached us that Mrs. John H. Haverly, widow of "Jack" Haverly, is seriously ill and destitute in a little back room on the second floor of No. 208 West Forty-second Street, New York City.

New Hurlig & Seamon Houses.

Jules Hurlig returned from a trip to the middle West last week and announces that he had secured options on several playhouses, which he intends to turn into ten and twenty cent vaudeville houses.

"The Patriot" Booked in the West.

Helena Frederick and her company, in "The Patriot," have been engaged for a thirty weeks' tour over the Orpheum circuit, commencing at the Majestic Theatre, Chicago, April 5.

Mittenthal Bros. Get "Parisian Model."

Two of Florenz Ziegfeld Jr.'s musical productions, "The Soul Kiss" and "The Parisian Model," will be under the direction of Mittenthal Bros., beginning next season.

Memora to Play Morris Time.

Memora, a young Englishman, will commence a vaudeville engagement under the Morris management, March 29. Memora is a memory prodigy.

GENNARO.

Giovanni Gennaro, or, as he now calls himself, John Gennaro, was born at Palermo, Italy. At the age of eight years he entered the Santa Cecilia Conservatory of Music to study the clarinet and musical composition. At eighteen, in competition with hundreds of others, he won the position of solo clarinetist with the Municipal Band of that city, an organization composed of sixty members, each of whom was a qualified musical director. This position he held for four years, resigning to visit the United States, where he has been ever since. Unlike some other foreign musicians who have come here to make money in order to go back home and spend it, Mr. Gennaro is a naturalized American citizen. In the last five years he and his band have delighted large audiences, and he is now over the Orpheum and K. & P. circuits. He has published a number of successful compositions, among which is the "St. Cecilia" march, "A Trip from New York to Newport," also "Retreat," a two-step which has become very popular. Although an Italian, Mr. Gennaro speaks English and German fluently. For the past two years he has been giving performances in the leading vaudeville theatres throughout the country and has met with great success.

GENNARO

ACTORS' FUND REGISTRATION BUREAU.

The following letter was sent out from the Actors' Fund last week:

"To the stock company managers and those who intend establishing a stock company for the Summer, the Actors' Fund Registration Bureau books are now open.

"We have many of the best stock actors and actresses now on our books, others joining every day. We charge no commission to registered members of the Fund. Our business is done entirely by correspondence, a dignified way of handling the affairs of the artist, mechanic, manager, agent, etc.; in fact, all those who gain a livelihood in the theatre.

"The Actors' Fund is the grandest charity in the world and broadest in its actions, and the president and board of trustees would esteem it a personal favor if you would patronize the bureau when making up your companies, both for the Summer and Winter season, and trust you may give your thoughtful consideration."

All communications should be addressed to Thomas McGrath, Registration Dept., Actors' Fund, Gaiety Theatre Building, New York City.

NEW THEATRE IN FORTY-SIXTH STREET.

Bimberg Construction Co. to Build the House.

B. K. Bimberg, president of the Bimberg Construction Co., and a brother of the late M. R. Bimberg, known as "Bim, the Button Man," announced last week that he would build a new theatre in the Times Square district, New York City.

His company has purchased a site for the playhouse on the south side of Forty-sixth Street, between Broadway and Sixth Avenue. The following description of the new theatre was sent out:

The exterior is to be of Flemish renaissance style, with stone base and brick and terra cotta superstructure. The lobby, which will be on a level with the sidewalk, will extend across the entire front of the building, and be elaborately fitted with rich marble. The theatre will seat 1,400 people, and many new features will be introduced. The architect is George Kelster.

Empire Stock Theatre in Dallas.

The Empire Theatre Co., C. B. Harris, president and treasurer; W. J. Brown, vice-president; K. J. Stennett, secretary and manager, will open its Empire Stock Theatre March 22, with its own company, consisting of Louise Carter, leading lady, late of the American Stock Co.; Wm. Dowlin, leading man; Harry Hoy, Jeanette Connor, Oscar Graham and Miss Graham, Jack Younits, Edward Paulus, and Ralph Marthy and Isabelle Lowe.

The opening bill will be "The Belle of Richmond." H. Guy Woodward will have charge of the stage and production.

Baltimore Puts Ban on Sunday Shows.

There will be no Sunday concerts in Baltimore. The cases against Bernhard Ulrich and the musicians indicted for the rest were settled on March 18, under promise of Ulrich, William Knabe and Fred Gottlieb, owners of the house, to give no more concerts. The preachers and others who fought the concerts are elated, and the Baltimore blue law stands.

Williams Buys Some Mansfield Scenery.

Percy G. Williams has purchased the scenery and properties used by the late Richard Mansfield in his production of "Beau Brummel," "Richard III," "Ivan the Terrible," "The First Violin," "The Misanthrope" and "Don Carlos," and will use them in revival productions to be made by his stock company in the Crescent Theatre, Brooklyn.

Lotta Crabtree Buys Hotel in Boston.

Lotta Crabtree has bought the Hotel Bromstock, Boylston Street, near Washington Street, Boston, Mass., from the Charles H. Bond estate, and later will add it to the Hotel Cecil, which she owns, just around the corner, on Washington Street. The property is valued at $367,000.

Western Wheel Season Ends May 1.

The executive committee of the Empire circuit (Western wheel) has withdrawn the assignment of dates extending the regular season two weeks. The season will close Saturday May 1. The house managers and company managers can arrange further bookings independently for later dates.

Empire Circuit Invades Winnipeg.

W. T. Campbell, of Campbell & Drew, has secured a lease of three houses in Winnipeg, Canada. One of these houses will be given over to the Empire circuit (Western wheel) beginning next season, for their attractions. This will bring Duluth, Minn., in the wheel again, which was out this season.

The Carpenter Circuit.

John T. Carpenter has established a circuit of four theatres in the Middle West, and is negotiating for the lease of several others, as he expects to have control of at least fifteen houses in time for next season.

At present he is lessee of the Grand, at Lafayette, Ind.; Academy of Music, Saginaw, Mich.; Majestic, Port Huron, Mich., and the Majestic, in Findlay, O.

Mr. Carpenter will install a resident manager in each theatre, but will personally look after the Lafayette, Ind., house, which is to be thoroughly remodeled at the close of the present season. The plans will be similar to the Princess Theatre, in Chicago, and the owner of the Grand promises to expend a large sum of money on the building to make it strictly up-to-date.

Mickey Finn in "The Gay Life."

Mickey Finn, the noted Bohemian character, has been engaged by Harrison Grey Fliske for "The Gay Life." Mr. Finn will add local color and atmosphere to Roy McCordell's comedy in the last act, which discloses a famous restaurant in the Bohemian quarter of New York City.

Lew Fields Gets Broadway Theatre.

Control of the Broadway Theatre will pass into the hands of Lew Fields on May 1. He will use this house to produce plays in which he personally will not be able to appear until the Herald Square Theatre is demolished.

After Mrs. Jacob Litt and A. W. Dingwall, lessees of the Broadway, retire from its control, extensive alterations will be made in the theatre.

One important change will be the building of a large promenade, which will necessitate the removal of several rows of seats at the rear of the house.

The theatre is to be fitted up for musical plays, and it will also have the conveniences of a music hall, where, at times, burlesques, similar to those which proved so popular in the days of the old Weber & Fields partnership in the music hall at Broadway and Twenty-ninth Street, will be produced.

Thelie Gets Madison Square Roof.

M. M. Thelie will be in control of the Madison Square Garden roof, New York City, the coming Summer. He will produce there a musical comedy, with players of established reputations.

Benefit to Be Given for Destitute Jewish Children.

Through the kindness of William Harris, the Building Fund Committee has been able to secure the Boston Theatre, Boston, Mass., for the afternoon of April 29. A monster benefit will be given on that date in aid of the fund for the erection in Boston of the New Home for Destitute Children. An all star performance of professional players is assured. This will be the first theatrical performance in Boston for a Jewish charity, and promises to be one of the social events of the season.

Duty Remains Unchanged on Scenery.

There has been no change in the duty on theatrical scenery. The duty on this is 20 per cent. ad valorem. There is no specific classification of theatrical scenery in the tariff laws. It comes under the general heading of paintings.

Theatre Burns in Lonaconing.

Moran's Opera House, Lonaconing, Md., burned on March 18, with property valued at $40,000.

Miss Clipper's Anecdotes, Personalities and Comments, CONCERNING STAGE FOLK and Sometimes OTHERS

BY JOSEPHINE GRO.

Henry B. Harris' three traveling companies of "The Lion and the Mouse" are still sending in stories of the misconceptions in the minds of the public concerning the title of the play. Some of the "paper" is also responsible for this, particularly the big 24-sheet stand which depicts a very large lion entangled in a net, with a very small mouse gnawing at the strings to free him, in this way illustrating the old, well-known fable that has been printed in every language.

E. A. McFarland, manager of Company C, got the following from the treasurer of the Paducah, Ky., Theatre, who overheard the conversation of two elderly ladies, concerning the paper display near the theatre.

"I'd like awfully well to go to that show," said one of them.

"Well, aren't you going?" asked the other.

"Not unless that mouse is to be tied up," was the reply, "I'm not at all afraid of the lion."

Arriving at an Illinois town, the other day, McFarland writes of a repetition of a scene that has happened at several other points on his route, and that is a congregation of townsmen at the depot to see the unloading of the animals. On this occasion, after all the scenery had been removed from the baggage car, and an examination of the same showed no signs of the looked-for menagerie, a depot hanger-on approached the manager and said:

"What section is your animal car coming on?"

Stutzman and May, in their comedy skit, "The Soap Peddler," use in their advertising a clever parody on the well known ad. of the big English soap firm—"Good Morning! Have You Used (this) Pair's Soap?"—a familiar question always sure to catch the eye and arrest the attention, and secure a second thought from the observer, which a simple announcement of their names and title of sketch would not always get.

While Wilton Lackaye has the reputation for quick repartee of a cutting character, his brother actor, Nat Goodwin, certainly shares honors in giving humorous rejoinders. The comedian was one day standing at a Broadway corner where street car lines intersected from six directions. A perplexed looking bystander, apparently not a New Yorker, addressed Goodwin with the intention of inquiring his way to a certain desired destination. Beginning his inquiry he said:

"I want to go to the Aquarium—"

"Well," said Goodwin, with a sort of stern parent expression on his face, "I'll let you go this once, to see the little fish swim about in the tanks, but I don't want you ever to ask me again."

May Irwin, now appearing in vaudeville in her successful sketch, "Mrs. Peckham's Carouse," wears beautiful gowns befitting the social station and sort of woman she so graphically characterizes—the strong minded wife of a wealthy business man. Their quiet coloring, however, does not bring out all the richness of the costly materials of which they are made. She wears one costume during her act, changing it several times during her week engagements. Her bonnet worn with these is a small white lace affair, edged with black velvet, and tied under the chin with narrow bands of the same. It is trimmed at the left side with a small bunch of pink rosebuds and a small black pompon. Miss Irwin covers her own soft blonde hair with a silver white wig, which gives her the appearance of a woman on the so-called shady side of fifty—dignified, refined and handsome.

The climax of the ludicrous incidents leading up to it is a fainting fit in the office of her husband, from which she is revived by the administration of two glasses of whiskey, the very thing of which she, as a prime mover in the temperance cause, has a rooted hatred. Her impersonation of the exhilarated elderly lady, in a gamut of moods inspired by the beverage to which she was unused, is done in the only Irwinian way, too subtle to be described, but fully appreciated even to the top row in the gallery of the Percy Williams Colonial Theatre, where Miss Irwin opened last week.

The gown at her first performance there was black point d'esprit lace over ivory satin. The skirt is demi-train, with a deep founce of the black net, the edge of which is trimmed with jetted white lace. The over-dress, which is pointed in front, is of the black lace, with several rows of fine tucks following the outline of the hem. Into the hem is woven the white lace edge, and the patterns of this lace are outlined with tiny jet beads, though the work on this lace scarcely shows over the footlights.

Another of Miss Irwin's gowns is an Empire model, which the comedienne says she ordered with some misgivings, for fear that this especially fashionable model would not become her figure. Contrary to her expectations, it was an improvement, for in it she looks fully six inches taller from the front of the house, and some inches fewer at the back and waist line.

The gown is of a yellowish shade in heavy satin champaigne, handsomely trimmed in the usual Empire style, with gold colored lace, ornamented with crystal beads and bugles.

Miss Irwin, however, prefers black in combination with some other rich material, for the character she portrays. One black gown is soft black silk gauze, with black lace medallions about four inches long set at intervals over the material. Each of these is outlined around the lower half with two-inch wide chenille fringe in black. The under gown, which is veiled by this black material, is of palest pink satin.

If one wishes to look exceedingly girlish and can make up for it otherwise, let her wear a youthful dress like the one worn by Marie Dainton, the clever young English mimic, who has been brought over by Percy Williams, and opened recently at his Colonial Theatre. This ankle-length gown can be described almost in a sentence, because of its extreme simplicity, though the ma-

THEODORE MORSE and AL. COOK
Form a New Music Publishing Company.

Theodore Morse and Al. Cook, two prominent men in the theatrical and musical field, have just incorporated under the firm name of the Theodore Morse Music Co. They have a good location at the southwest corner of Thirty-seventh Street and Broadway, and with the great line of new songs by Theodore Morse and Jack Mahoney, the thousands of professional friends learning and using their songs, and with the support of the trade that they have, it should be but a very short time before this concern is a factor in the music world.

Theodore Morse is the writer of many famous songs, among them "Blue Bell," "Way Down in My Heart I've Got a Feeling for You," "Dear Old Girl," "Monkey Land" and "Down in Jungle Town." His new numbers are as follows: "On a Monkey Honeymoon," a great jungle song; "Blue Feather," an intermezzo two-step and Indian love song, with a melody that is irresistible; "Good-Night Moonlight," a typical Morse march ballad; "Wise Old Indian," a very funny song, with about twenty extra verses and choruses, and a semi-classic ballad, entitled "My World is a Dream of You." After hearing these songs it is easy to predict phenomenal business for the new firm.

Al. Cook, the business man of the concern, has passed some twenty years with publishers, music dealers and jobbers throughout the country, starting his career with J. W. Pepper, of Philadelphia. Later with Lyon & Healy, of Chicago; the John Church Co., of Chicago; the Howley, Hayland & Dresser Co., of New York, and the Hayland concern, from which he has just resigned the management. Besides being a business man, Al. Cook has many friends in the theatrical profession that will be a great asset to the new firm. These two men represent a combination of talent, experience and business ability that inspires confidence in the Theodore Morse Music Co. We predict two big hits for this season. They are "Blue Feather," the Indian love song, and the monkey ditty, "On a Monkey Honeymoon," both by Theodore Morse and Jack Mahoney.

terial is costly, consisting of many yards of point applique lace about six inches in width. The skirt is simply six flounces of this lace, scantily gathered on to a full skirt of white net. The bodice, which is short-sleeved and decollete, is covered with the same lace. The girdle is satin, of a pale shade of pink, finished with two rosettes of the same material. Miss Dainton wears no jewels.

Miss Dainton is one of the most refined, daintiest mimics ever seen on the stage, and her work in her special line of mimicry is truer and more artistic than most so-called mimics and impersonators. In making her announcements as to whom she is next to imitate, she modestly informs the audience that she will give a suggestion as to how that personage might give their specialty, and instead of a mere suggestion, she almost creates the illusion of the person himself or herself, such is her subtle art.

Miss Dainton has long been a top liner in London, having made her first great success in "A Chinese Honeymoon," and, once getting a good hold of her public, she has never yet let go of it. Her success on this side, coming here almost unheralded, is already well on its way to equal her English popularity.

Another Company for "The Matinee Girl."

"The Matinee Girl" Co., which is now in its fifth season, is playing all the principal cities of the Southwest. Dan Russell and Wm. Gross are featured with the attraction, and are big favorites in that section. The management will put out a No. 2 company for the summer season. The roster of the present company follows: Frank Dee Atley, proprietor; J. E. Jackson, manager; Dan Russell, stage director; Wm. Gross, stage manager; John Smith, electrician; Fred Boyd, props; Wm. Bond, carpenter; Nellie Jackson, wardrobe mistress; John Leveridge, musical director; Carl Simpson, Harry Dolton, Willie Green, Lomas Jones, Gladys Jackson, Clo Lamphere, Maggie Ray, Anna Murphy, Nellie June, Hazel McCain, Mabel Underwood, Florence Cook, Gertrude Barnes and Georgie Winterburn.

A. S. Stern's Theatrical Ventures.

A. S. Stern once owner of the Cincinnati Baseball Club, is enjoying a theatrical experience. With Ben Stern, he controls the production of "Strongheart," and one of the "Folly of the Circus" companies. Col. Stern expects to leave Cincinnati before long for a future residence in New York.

A Young Australian Artist.

The Conservatory Orchestra at Cincinnati presented two soloists—Mary Dennison Galley, violinist, and Winifred Hurston, a young Australian pianist, a pupil of Theodore Bohman—at a concert at Conservatory Hall. The audience was immense.

Robert Hilliard Gives "A Fool There Was."

Robert Hilliard and his company presented at Harmanus Bleecker Hall, Albany, N. Y., evening of Thursday, March 18, "A Fool There Was," a three act play, by Porter Emerson Browne.

Frederic Thompson has staged the piece lavishly, and Mr. Hilliard made a great personal success in it.

Katharine Kaelred's portrayal was excellent. William Courtleigh was manly, and Nanette Comstock was capital. Emily Wurster, as a child, also won much favor. Others were: Edna Conroy, S. K. Walker, Edwin Harbour, Howard Hull, George Clare and R. J. Barker.

Florence Roberts Again Playing.

Florence Roberts appeared in "The House of Bondage" at Omaha, Neb., on Tuesday night, March 16, for the first time since her recent illness. During her absence from the cast Mary Bertrand has been playing the principal role.

A State Anthem for Washington.

Reginald De Koven, the composer, and Professor Edmund S. Meany, head of the department of history in the University of Washington, were signally honored by both houses of the State legislature in regular session, at Olympia, when, by joint resolution, "Washington Beloved" was declared the state anthem. Mr. De Koven's music for Professor Meany's verses is dignified and distinctive. The words follow:

"WASHINGTON BELOVED."
Thy name, oh Washington renowned,
We hail from far and near,
Thy glories joyfully resound.
In song of praise and mighty cheer.
Thy fame, oh Washington serene,
Leads up on to the sky,
While we through every changing scene,
Thy purple pennants lift on high.
Thy deeds, oh Washington benign,
Will last as hills of stone,
While we like ore the fires refine,
Will ring forth praise to thee alone.
Thy sons, oh Washington beloved,
Lift up their heads in pride,
By whatsoever sea removed,
To thee, in love, their lives are tied.

Charters for Philadelphia Theatrical Interests.

Application has been made to the Governor of Pennsylvania for charters for three corporations in Philadelphia of a theatrical nature.

Frank D. Weylman, the executor of the Thos. F. Kelly estate, which owns the National and Forepaugh Theatres, in conjunction with Joseph M. Kelly, Howard J. Kelly, Thomas F. Kelly Jr., and John J. Monroe, have applied for a charter for the National Theatre Amusement Co.

John J. Monroe, Howard J. Kelly and Joseph M. Kelly have also applied for a charter for another corporation to be known as the Monroe & Kelly Amusement Co.

Another corporation which has also applied for a charter is the Len B. Roodman Amusement Co. The incorporators are: James Wilson, Benjamin Davis and Albert Glose. All three companies are authorized by their charters to conduct a theatrical business in the capacity of managers and producers.

Barton & Wiswell's Plans.

A new musical review, entitled "The Billikens," will be presented by Barton & Wiswell during the early summer at one of the Broadway Theatres. The book has been furnished by Thomas R. Henry, who has placed the scene of action on an imaginary planet during the reign of rival kings, who have evolved from graven images.

The contract between Gus Hill and Barton & Wiswell, giving the latter firm the exclusive rights to the Smart Set Co. and "McFadden's Flats," in all parts of the United States and Canada, will remain operative another season. An entirely new production, including a new book and music, is being prepared for the Smart Set Co., which will be headed by S. H. Dudley. A special Smart Set company will be organized to tour the South and far West, presenting "Southern Enchantment."

The famous Speck Brothers will be seen again next season in "McFadden's Flats." This company will inaugurate its fifty-five weeks' tour on Aug. 14.

Manager of Valentine, Toledo, Married.

Horace A. Smith, popular with the profession, was married Thursday, March 11, to Code Von Elches Gintz, of Cleveland, Ohio. The service was solemnized by Rev. Somerville, of Trinity Parish, in Toledo, O.

Mr. Smith was a Cleveland boy, who has worked his way up from usher until he became manager for Vaughan Glaser, and for a time was connected with the Hippodrome. He went to Toledo at the beginning of this season to assume the management of the Valentine, and has had the most successful season in the history of the theatre.

Mr. Smith will have charge of the Valentine next season, and his many friends will be glad to learn of his good fortune and success.

A Wish that Materialized.

When Roy L. McCordell's Chorus Girl stories first made their appearance in print, Katherine De Barry wrote the humorist from Baltimore, asking him if he would make them the basis of a vaudeville sketch, as the character of Mama De Branscombe particularly appealed to her. Mr. McCordell thanked Miss De Barry for her interest, but stated that, inasmuch as he was then contemplating placing these characters in a comedy, he could not, of course, acquiesce in her request.

Now comes the strange part of the story in that Harrison Grey Fiske is producing Mr. McCordell's comedy, "The Gay Life," and has engaged Katherine De Barry to originate the role of Mama De Branscombe.

"The Man From Home" At Home.

On Tuesday night, March 16, William T. Hodge appeared for the two hundred and fiftieth time in "The Man From Home," Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson's successful comedy, at the Astor Theatre. Mr. Hodge made a brief speech in commemoration of the occasion. "The Man From Home" shows no signs of diminishing popularity, and seats are still on sale twelve weeks in advance.

De Angelis Presents "The Beauty Spot."

At the Belasco Theatre, Washington, D. C., on Tuesday evening, March 16, "The Beauty Spot," a musical play, in two acts, book and lyrics by Joseph Herbert, music by Reginald De Koven, was given its first performance on any stage. Jefferson De Angelis was the star, and Marguerite Clark was his principal support.

"Miss Innocence" for London.

Florenz Ziegfeld Jr., who is now abroad, cabled the managers of Anna Held's "Miss Innocence" company, that he had practically completed arrangements whereby the entire company would be transported to London for a Spring engagement.

It is announced that should Miss Held go abroad, she will likely also revive "A Parisian Model."

Ralph Cummings Given Banquet.

Ralph E. Cummings, manager of the Cummings Stock Co., Lynn, Mass., was given a farewell banquet by the Twelve o'Clock Club, Wednesday night, March 17.

President Norman Goodwin presented him, on behalf of the club, with a silver loving cup.

Norman Hackett Goes to London.

Norman Hackett, who has made a big success this year in "Classmates," will sail for London, Eng., from New York City, July 1, to study his part and get the correct costumes for his big production next season of "Beau Brummel."

Franklyn Wallace Writes Chas. K. Harris.

"Your song, 'Nobody Knows, Nobody Cares,' is a decided hit, and has come up to my predictions, which I made when I heard it in manuscript some four or five years ago; turn out some more like it, as I enjoy singing good songs." Very truly yours, FRANKLYN WALLACE.

Contract Filled by "Show On the Ground."

A decision was rendered in New Jersey, recently, to the effect that when a showman has placed his paraphernalia on the grounds, his contract is filled. John S. Berger and Fred Sargent had borrowed from Bernard Brindze $3,000 for the purpose of presenting a circus at the police carnival in Atlantic City. The police were to deposit $5,000, the proceeds of the sale of tickets, in a local bank, to be drawn on by the showman after the show had been installed. After the tents had been raised a cyclone blew them down. But four performances were given. The police held their money, the show was stopped and the police claimed that the contract had not been kept. The judge decided that the showmen were entitled to their money.

Mary Mannerling to Play "The Truants."

Mary Mannerling, who recently closed her tour in "Glorious Betsy," will be starred by the Shuberts in a new play, "The Truants," by Wilfred T. Coleby. The play is now being presented in London, at the Kingsway Theatre, by Lena Ashwell.

Rehearsals have been called, and the play will be produced in some city near New York before the close of the present season.

"The Whirlpool" for Early Production.

"The Whirlpool," a play of present day life in America, written by Maximilian Foster, a newspaper and magazine writer, is to be produced by Wagenhals & Kemper in Washington in April.

Professional Matinee of "The Girl from Rector's."

A professional matinee is announced for Friday, 26, for "The Girl from Rector's" at Weber's Music Hall, New York.

New York Hippodrome's New Mortgage.

The New York Hippodrome was mortgaged last week to the Trust Company of America for $1,700,000. The old mortgage was for $1,200,000. Title to the property is held by the Forty-third Street Realty Company, which is subsidiary to the United States Realty and Improvement Company. The new mortgage will run for twenty years and carry six per cent. interest.

Eddie Leonard Re-opens in Vaudeville.

Eddie Leonard will re-appear in vaudeville at the closing of the season of Cohan & Harris' Minstrels, and will open his vaudeville season in Syracuse, N. Y., week of April 5, following with the Williams' circuit, Hammerstein's Victoria and the Western circuit.

Kitty Cheatham's One Matinee.

Kitty Cheatham's Easter matinee will be given this year at the Lyceum Theatre, at three o'clock in the afternoon of April 13. This will be the last appearance of Miss Cheatham, previous to her departure for Europe. The piece de resistance of the recital will be a novelty, never before attempted in America.

Col. and Gertrude Foster at Rokonkomo.

Col. Jess Foster and Gertrude Foster were City callers on March 16. They are located at the Colonel's villa, on Lake Ronkonkomo, adjoining the magnificent Summer home of Maude Adams.

Clara May Hammer's Success.

Clara May Hammer, prima donna, who appeared at the Palace Theatre, Hazleton, Pa., last week, has received good notices in the press of that city. She is at the Cambria Theatre, Johnstown, Pa., this week. She will play twelve weeks over the Morris circuit.

St. Patrick's Day Programme.

St. Patrick's Day at the Columbia, Cincinnati, was appropriately celebrated. Julius Tannen told a number of Irish stories and some pictures of Erin were added for the day.

Clarence Adler's American Debut.

Cincinnati is preparing a welcome home to Clarence Adler, the young pianist, who arrived from Rotterdam on the Ryndam. He will make his American debut in his home city March 24.

Ryan and White to Play on Other Side.

Ryan and White, American representative dancers, will sail for Europe in June, to play six weeks over the Moss & Stoll tour.

Old Home Week.

St. Charles and St. Charles County, Mo., will have their first homecoming celebration in conjunction with the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of St. Charles as a city, which will be held Oct. 11-16, 1909. A cordial invitation is extended to all former residents of the city and county to come and bring their friends. Many improvements and important changes have been made of late years, including two iron bridges, which replace the old ferry, affording an easy access to St. Louis. During the shifting of events in the years that followed the birth of the city many of our old citizens or their children have sought homes in the far West, the sunny South, or in other cities, and in some cases foreign lands. Wherever they

ADVERTISING LESSON No. 9.

James Madison has been issuing Madison's Budget for a number of years and it is tolerably well known throughout the profession. Mr. Madison thanks THE CLIPPER. Here is what he says:

"March 13, 1909.

"NEW YORK CLIPPER—Gentlemen: Here's what I think of CLIPPER advertising: I have not missed an issue in nearly seven years, and expect to continue using your columns regularly as long as 'Madison's Budget' is published, which I hope will be for many, many years to come. Due appreciation of the splendid results I have always obtained from the use of CLIPPER space, believe me, 'Very sincerely, JAMES MADISON.'"

No. 10.

Gunby Brothers, producers of lectures and lantern slide effects, have lately fallen in line and "must say":

"NEW YORK CLIPPER—Gentlemen: Enclosed find check for our last 'ad' in your paper, and must say it is certainly bringing results."

No. 11.

"Neo-Grease" is a soluble make-up grease paint. Edward Miller, the proprietor of the preparation, inserted an "ad" in the Anniversary Number of THE CLIPPER, and now you can't keep him out of THE CLIPPER. Here is his say:

"March 15, 1909.
"NEW YORK CLIPPER—Gentlemen: It is always a difficult matter to introduce a new article to the public successfully, and especially to the members of the profession, who are 'wise' to everything. I sell them soap and must have the goods. But through the advertising columns of THE CLIPPER we have brought the attention of players to 'Neo-Grease,' a make-up grease paint that can be quickly removed by soap and water. The returns have been most gratifying to us, and you can rest assured that THE CLIPPER will always get a share of any advertising that we may do in the future. We have today instructed our agent to insert our 'ad' in THE CLIPPER for an indefinite period.
"Yours truly, NEO-GREASE CO.,
"Edward Miller, Prop."

OUR ANNIVERSARY NUMBER.

"THE VOYAGE OF THE GOOD SHIP, 'CLIPPER'—The writer acknowledges with thanks the Special Anniversary number of THE NEW YORK CLIPPER, which for over half a century has kept its place as first among its equals in theatrical journalism primarily through its honorable and cleanly representation of everything conducive to the betterment of conditions in its chosen field. In congratulating our esteemed contemporary, which, by the way, was founded in 1853—it need only be said that so far as its methods are concerned, it shows no signs of age, and it is doubly pleasing to see so many of our music publishing friends represented in its advertising columns. After all, it is cleanliness and honesty that counts in the newspaper world, as in everything else."—Music Trade Review.

Vaudeville and Minstrel.

NOTE FROM Darnoc's Vaudeville Stars, now touring Minnesota—We are meeting with phenomenal success, the roster being: C. H. Conrad, manager; Bertie Montague, singing and dancing; Stuart Barnum, black-face singing and dancing comedian; Darnoc's magician and ventriloquist; the Darnoc's musical act, and Ralph Farral, musical director. All are well, and we wait patiently each week for THE OLD RELIABLE.

TONY RICHARDSON writes from Cleveland, O., as follows: "Having been a reader of THE OLD RELIABLE for the past thirty-nine years, perhaps for a number of seasons from a professional standpoint, I desire to make known the fact that my old home lodge of Elks put on, under the able direction of Bro. C. Geo. Nunn, their annual minstrel show, which I witnessed at Ashtabula, O., on March 8. It was a success all around and the boys will again add to their Charity Fund. They have just completed one of the most modern and finest equipped Elks temples in the country."

PAUL BAXTER writes: "Since I closed with 'The Phantom Detective,' which I was with for twenty-two weeks this season, I have been working for Ban McHugh, playing vaudeville dates, without a lay-off. I have written a new act, which I have been rehearsing with the boys, and the act is entitled 'The Attorney's Daughter.' We played our first date with the new act March 15."

R. B. LE ROY, since closing with 'The Indian's Secret,' Co., has written a thrilling little play for vaudeville, which has its initial performance at W. S. Butterfield's theatre at Battle Creek, Mich. It proved a success and was booked over the entire circuit. Mr. Le Roy has some very pretty scenery made for the playlet, together with mechanical effects.

Geo. EVERS is now presenting his new act, introducing Leonard Loeh, one of the best kid performers and dancers in the business. The new act is in black face, and is a big hit. The act is booked solid over the Western Vaudeville time, under the name of Geo. Evers and Pork Chops.

JOHN BUCKLEY writes: "After closing on the Sullivan & Considine circuit, I signed to play the same time for next season, but through a mistake in the correspondence contracts were withdrawn, and I immediately received word from the Pantages offices to play that circuit on a guarantee to play one solid year, and I am now booked up until May, 1910."

THE PALMER SPECIALTY CO. reports meeting with pronounced success, as the S. R. O. sign indicates, which is a frequent occurrence. Roster is as follows: A. H. Palmer, manager; Blanche A. Stanley, picture dancer; Lillie A. Jones, pianist and musical specialties; Walter Chapin, comedian; Chief Hiawatha, Indian magician.

Try Marine Eye Remedy

For Red, Weak, Watery, Watery Eyes. Marine Doesn't Smart—It Soothes Eye Pain.

THE CLIPPER COMEDY FOUR are booked solid over the United time until July. They report meeting with great success, and are receiving excellent press notices wherever they appear.

"HARRY BENWAY writes: 'Through an ad. in THE OLD RELIABLE, I have secured eight weeks' work here in Montgomery County, New York, playing picture houses with big success. I return to Fondra as an added attraction, with Glen and Amsterdam, N. Y., to follow. I am featuring my tanglefoot wooden shoe dancing.'

FRED FISCHER will shortly make his debut in vaudeville with Maurice Burkhardt, at the Fulton Street Theatre, Brooklyn.

TOM WATERS, in 'Coming Thru' the Rye, closed his season at Chicago. Mr. Waters opened in vaudeville in St. Louis last week.

MENISH AND PENFOLD introduced their act in Hoboken recently.

ALICE LLOYD has been obliged to cancel her Montreal and Toronto engagements through illness.

ETHEL LEVY will return to America in time to open her Orpheum tour at the Majestic, Chicago, Aug. 22, after a successful engagement at the Theatre Michel, Paris, France, in the Revue.

HARRY TAYLOR, his singing monologue, scored a strong success at Proctor's, Albany, week ending March 13. He left New York on Tuesday, 9, in time to appear at the last show at night in place of William Cahill, who was ill. Mr. Taylor's vocal efforts seemed to hit the taste of the Proctor patrons, his yodeling song being particularly effective in gaining encores for the young singing comedian.

GREAT HEYWOOD has left the 'In the Nick of Time' Co. to fulfill contracts for his specialty act, playing en route towards Los Angeles, Cal., where he intends to settle down as a vocal instructor.

LEON AND MACK, tramp eccentrics, report making a hit on the Pantages time, booking return dates.

CIRKO AND ROCHELLE have just concluded six weeks for J. W. Gorman, and are this week at Keith's Bijou, Woonsocket, R. I.

H. W. GARRETT, of the team of Garrett and Loftus, writes: 'I have dissolved partnership with my partner, R. G. Loftus, and joined my brother-in-law, J. W. Garrett, late of the Colonial Saxophone Quartette, in a high class singing, musical and trick piano act, featuring L. F. Garrett on the saxophone, and H. W. Garrett, the trick pianist. The act is to be known as Garrett Bros.'

ADDISON AND LIVINGSTON write that they are now in their fifty-fifth week in the South, and their act is meeting with big success. They are booked solid till August, opening on the Sullivan & Considine Texas time, April 5, under the management of Jack Dickey.

DEMONIO AND BELL have closed a season of twenty-seven weeks on a Western circuit. They have purchased a large piece of land adjoining their estate in Englewood, N. J. Mr. Demonio was made a White Rat recently.

Er. S. MARLOW, formerly of the team of Santoro and Marlow, is playing the Norman Jeffries time with his new character tramp specialty, and reports meeting with success.

HENRY NEISER, now in his thirtieth week with the H. Henry Minstrel, writes: 'My act has been well received along the coast. After this season I will adopt the name Great Neiser, instead of Henry Neiser. Your Anniversary Number was gladly received, and is an interesting and valuable edition.'

JAMES COLE and Cole and Clemens, has joined James S. Hughes, in a travesty act, depicting scenes from 'Quo Vadis,' also 'Damon and Pythias.' Joseph Mitchell will write a new act for them next season.

They will carry a special drop for the act. They have not lost a week since joining each other, and are booked up until June.

LESTER HEDDER, with the team of Hedder and Son, is seriously ill with scarlet fever in Toronto, Can.

LE ROY WHITE, black face comedian, opened at the Star Theatre, San Antonio, Tex., March 8, for a return engagement of fourteen weeks over the Swor & Frankel Bros. time, having met with fine success.

STEELE AND MAYER report great success with their new comedy act, 'Ripe Peaches,' written by Billy De Rose. They carry a special drop, and work about fifteen minutes in one.

MR. AND MRS. GEO. W. MILTON write: 'We are spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schrodt, at the Lone Star, near Bridgeville, Del., and are having a fine time. We open March 22 with Markie's Sunny South Floating Palace, producing the show the coming season. Mr. Schrodt is a former actor, known as Geo. Arnett.'

TOMMY HAYES informs us that he is slowly recovering from a severe spell of sickness.

DAVE MANLEY, creator of 'Cecco,' in Mildred Holland's production of the 'Lily and the Prince,' who has not been seen East since 1902, has joined hands with Frank Vennett, known through all the Eastern States as a boy tenor, and they are presenting an original singing and talking act in one. They opened Monday, March 15, on the N. E. circuit.

JEWETT and HAYES opened on Jeffries' time week of March 1, at Richmond, Va., after twenty-nine very successful weeks in the West.

MURRAY AND ALDEN write: 'This is our tenth week with the Great Albini Co. We are playing through Vermont. Have a fine turn date at Burlington (Strong Theatre), March 22.'

H. D. COLLINS, formerly with Voelckel & Nolan's Black Patil Troubadours and the Dixie Minstrels, and at present manager of E. J. Carpenter's 'At Cripple Creek' Co., has completed plans for a minstrel show next season, headed by two well known colored comedians.

MR. AND MRS. BYRON SPAUN are playing the principal cities of the South on the Jake Wells time. Mr. Spaun opens his tenting season in May, making his fourteenth season.

BRADLEY MARTIN and his company, including Jessie Courtney, produced their new act, 'Somebody Lied,' at the Coliseum Theatre, Newark, N. J., Sunday, March 7. The act was favorably received by the audience, and the management complimented Mr. Martin on his newest effort.

FRANK MACKAY and company closed a successful sixteen weeks' engagement at Bennett's Theatre, London, Ont., Can., and have eight weeks in Hamilton, Ont., Can., to follow.

EDWARD WALDMANN opened his season, in 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' and 'The Devil,' in Vineland, N. J., Saturday, March 13. The cast includes: Marion Hoffman, Kathryn King, Norma Grayson, Harlan Mitchell, John Buchanan, Harold Mortimer, Alex. McDermott, J. W. Kennedy, Geo. Maderson, H. J. Hubert, T. D. Landers, John Wilton and Frank Worthers.

WILLIAM GROSS informs us that he is in his fifth season with the 'Matinee Girl' Co., but on May 2 he will be transferred to the 'College Girl' Co., which is also owned and controlled by the same management.

FRED K. LANHAM, agent of the Latimore-Leigh Stock Co. (Western), writes: 'The Latimore-Leigh Co. is playing to very gratifying returns in Illinois and Wisconsin, headed by the magnetic young romantic actor, Bert Leigh. The repertory embraces recent successes. The vaudeville contingent, composed of five big acts, is a feature of importance, headed by Uncle Hay and Brother. Mme. Gertrude, seeress and mind reader, an act composed of four people, was engaged at Kenosha, Wis., as an added feature. Mr. Leigh's season has been an artistic triumph, and we are booking many return dates. We carry twenty-one people, together with the band. Electrical effects and scenery are also carried. The Saturday night bill, 'Jesse James,' is carefully produced, with good line of paper. It hangs out the S. R. O. sign every Saturday night. Mr. Leigh this coming Summer will be interested in a circuit of air-roads. I am carrying twenty-six different styles of paper and two bill trucks.'

NOTES FROM THE 'HANS HANSON' Co.—This attraction, after a very successful season, is still on the road and doing nicely. Opening in Wisconsin Sept. 7, we have played better time than this show has ever before enjoyed, with the exception of Minnesota, Iowa, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri. We are now in Iowa, and will close June 1, near Chicago. At Boonville, Mo., we lost two very estimable people in the Davises, Harry and Cora, who were called home by the serious illness of Mr. Davis' mother. Their places were ably taken by Florence Woodward and Charles Cubine. Our band and orchestra has received excellent notice this season. George Marquette, who, in the part of the tramp, has been a big hit all season, with the excellent saxophone specialties. The roster is as follows: Robert Dalzell, Chas. Cubine, George Marquette, Sam Steendahl, Edwin Bailey, Burt Dakin, Florence Woodward, Elizabeth Bartley, Baby Eugene, and Nelson J. Loranger. The Rels, manager; A. R. Bashford, business manager; Ted Nicholson, bandmaster; Frank J. Villum, musical director.

GRAUSTARK CO. NOTES.—James W. Castle, secretary and treasurer of this company, has purchased the Summer residence of Senator Cox, Sheridan Boulevard, Far Rockaway, and will take possession May 1. A. G. Delamater and William Norris' production of 'Beverly of Graustark,' a dramatization by Robert M. Baker, of the famous novel of the same title, will be in rehearsal this week, and open a Spring tour of the principal Eastern cities on April 10. Edith Shayne has been engaged by A. G. Delamater to create one of the leading roles.

MCCORMICK AND WIFE (Maggie McCormick) closed forty-four weeks' engagement in Sharon, Pa., March 6, with the Partello Stock Co. (Western). Both open in Hammond, Ind., April 12. Mrs. McCormick to play heavy, and Mr. McCormick to play light comedy. The show will carry twenty-two people and band and orchestra, and will play one, three and six night stands through Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, and in the East for the Winter in opera houses. The show opens April 15, at Jacksonville, Tex.

EDWIN BARRIE STOCK CO. NOTES.—Wilson R. Todd and wife (Jole Canada) have joined, replacing Oscar Graham and Loretta Graham, who have been playing leads and soubrettes, respectively, for the past two seasons. The company remains out of business, playing a four weeks' engagement at Houston, Tex., commencing April 25, and follows with six weeks at San Antonio. The entire repertory is being changed for next season, and our circuit will have the pleasure of seeing a stronger and better equipped show than we have ever carried. Roster: Edwin Barrie, proprietor and manager; Wilson R. Todd, Hal H. Plumb, Geo. E. Dawson, Ed. H. Mickey, March Hathorn, Jole Canada, Myrta Thompson, and Mrs. E. H. Mickey as advance agent.

THE MAY BELLE FOWLER CO. report business fair since their opening, Nov. 23, 1908. Chas. Manville, proprietor and manager of the company has been connected with J. S. Angelo for the past three years, and is well known throughout the South and middle West. We are booked solid until May 3, when we will lay off one week, before going under our new tent. Roster of company is as follows: Chas. Manville, owner and manager; W. K. Maxam, business manager; Tom C. Ryan, stage manager; Edgar Fowler, properties; Daniel Gay, Ed. Yove, Raymond Harlington, Laura Hazelton, Pearl Hazelton, and May Belle Fowler.

RICE RINALDO is busily engaged completing preparations for the opening of the stock company at Stone Hill Garden, Peoria, Ill., which organization will be under Mr. Rinaldo's direction next Summer. The opening date has been set for April 5. Mr. and Mrs. Rinaldo return to the Peoria stock house after a season of thirty weeks with the Woods Sisters Co., under the management of Otto H. Krause, making their second season with this attraction. Mr. Rinaldo reports splendid business for the Woods Sisters organization since their opening last Summer.

BARTON & WISWELL have engaged the following people to support Selma Herman during her season in stock at the Seattle Theatre: Robert Vaughn, Henry W. Otto, Rollins Holden, Raymond S. Aine, Harry McFayden, Irving Lancaster, Harry J. Russell, Fred E. Wright, Ruth Vaughn, Dorothy Stanton, Minnie Williams, Catherine Collins and Maurice James Fitzgerald. The opening performance will be given on April 11, and the repertory will embrace the latest successful dramatic productions of the current season.

HELEN E. ROSS AND NELLIE BLURLOCK closed last week with C. S. Primrose's 'Prince of Sweden' Co., and are resting at their home in Chicago and Indianapolis.

CLARENCE AUSKINS writes: 'I joined Perce R. Benton's 'A Cowboy Girl' Co., as agent, at Canal Dover, O., March 10. I received fifty letters from my ad. in THE CLIPPER of March 6. I closed with J. Harry Proctor's 'Sherlock Holmes' Co., as business manager, at Winnipeg, Man., on Feb. 15. I will be ahead of a well known stock company next season, as agent.'

GEORGE MAY, musical director of Hammett's, reports that his family has been increased by a baby boy, born on March 12.

CHARLES HARDY has returned to his home in Lafayette, Ind., where he will rest a month before taking up his vaudeville time. Mr. Hardy has just completed his sixth season as Edw. Utter, with 'The Volunteer Organizer' Company.

FRANCIS HARVEY SATLER, an actor and author of several successful plays, has completed his big scenic production, entitled 'A Light on the Trail.' He will be featured next season by the North Bros., under the personal direction of Manager Ira Swisher. LOTTIE FARMONT has replaced Connie Ediss, in 'Low Fields' 'Girl Behind the Counter' Co., for the remainder of the season, Miss Ediss being compelled to retire, on account of undergoing an operation for a tumor.

ED. LEONOWICZ is suffering from a severe cold, and is laying off for a few days, but expects to be working again soon.

MR. AND MRS. JOE C. BEARY (Kathryn Stein) closed with Lincoln J. Carter's 'In at the Finish' Co. at Philadelphia, and have joined the Wallace R. Cutter Stock Co. for the Summer and next season.

MR. AND MRS. HENRI CAZMAN arrived from England last week, for a month's visit. Mr. Cazman's previous visit to the States was made twelve years ago.

J. ARCHIBALD CURTIS opened in Davenport, Ia., playing the leading juvenile with Adelaide Thurston's 'The Woman's Hour' company.

THE UNICYCLING HAY TRIO of cyclists, now in their tenth week with the Latimore & Leigh Stock Co., report the greatest of success with their new act, which is under the personal direction of Carl A. Bergschneider.

OUR AUSTRALIAN LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

SYDNEY, Feb. 15.

The principal theatrical event of the week is the re-appearance of Cinquevalli, and the packed house at the Tivoli broke into a storm of enthusiastic applause to welcome back the juggler of cannon balls and bits of paper. His droll, unnamed assistant, came in for recognition also, as the curtain rose. When the turn was concluded, the house roared its appreciation to Cinquevalli, who kept bowing his acknowledgments for a considerable time. With regard to the rest of the performance, a new Scotch scene was presented for the first part, representing a Highland mountain glen, with the Scotch Melsters and a number of national songs and dances, the entertainment carried a certain Scotch flavor throughout. Others on the bill are: Stross and Fellows, instrumentalists; Geoffrey and Benson, in comedy; Lawson and Samson, Basil and Leslie, Thomas, the Two Pines, Charles Fanning, Four Rosebuds, Charlotte, Nellie Maunsell, Andy Roberts, Arthur Harris, Frank York, Les Watson and Tom Dawson.

At the Theatre Royal, the Scotch Pimpernel was revived by J. C. Williamson's company, with Julius Knight in the name part, and Beatrice Day taking the part of Margaret Blakeney. Leslie Victor admirably played the part of Chauvelin. Harry Pimpernel took the part of Prince of Wales, while Susie Vaughan and Guldford Quinn played Comtesse de Tournai and Suzanne de Tournai.

A. S. McKay, as Vicomte de Tournai, was excellent. Sir Andrew Floukes (Reynolds Denington), Lord Anthony Dewhurst (Herbert J. Bentley), Armand St. Just (Walter Hunt), Jellyband (G. Chalmers), Mr. Hempstead (Reg. Rede), Citizen Captain (S. Walpole), Brogard (E. Turner), and the others, were excellently played.

There was a great attendance at Her Majesty's Theatre on Saturday, when Florence Young was again admirably supported by Wybert Stamford as Napoleon, and Mr. Roberts, Mr. Hughes and Mr. Higginson, and others of the Royal Comic Opera Co. During the past week Com. Milne has been replacing Betty O'Neil (on account of Miss O'Neil's illness) as Renee de Saint Mezar. Miss Milne will resume her sprightly impersonation of the vivacious milliner, as J. C. Williamson will then bring forward the popular actress, Fanny Dangleas, the Imperial ward. 'The Duchess of Dantzic' is now in its seventh week, and as the last nights are not yet announced, it is expected to have a long and successful run.

'The Squatter's Daughter' continues to draw great audiences at the Criterion Theatre, where the picturesque Australian drama, with its beautiful change from night to dawn, will doubtless run out the season. Eugene Duggan's last eleven nights in the name part are now announced, prior to her departure for England with W. Anderson, whose long projected visit will be carried out at Easter.

At the Palace Theatre, on Saturday night, a successful production of 'The Old Folks at Home' was introduced by Mervell & Gunn's company. Ida Gresham played the part of Patricia, and Alice Doerwyn proved sympathetic as farmer Robin's wife. J. B. Atholwood, splendidly made up, played the part of old Christopher Reade; old Aunt Dinah was cleverly played by Marion Norman, while Queente Williams, Maggie Dickinson and a troupe of clever children scored encores for their singing and dancing. Elizabeth Hawthorn was a pretty Bonita Durham. Leo de Chateau and May Roberts caused a lot of laughter, which was increased by E. M. Keon and J. R. Howard, two solemn footmen.

Several new turns are now on the bill at the National Amphitheatre, among which, on Saturday, were the Raleighs, a pair of slack wire walkers; Masie Rowlands, a monologue entertainer, with songs, stories and imitations; George Scott, the acrobatic comedian; Harry Leggett, the eccentric comedian, and Baby Clive, the clown. Others were: Jack Kearns, Maggie Fraser, Carlton and Sutton, Con Moren, and the De Re Mi Troupe of Clowns, all running strongly in popularity.

At the Bijou Picture Palace, Queen's Hall, Gresham, and Victoria Hall, picture shows are still given to packed houses.

MONTANA.

Butte.—At the Broadway (J. K. Heslet, mgr.) Corinne delighted many old friends, in 'The Girls from Berlin,' March 13, 14. Coming, 'The Wolf.'

Lulu (Dick F. Sutton, mgr.)—Week of 14: Lulu and company, in 'Robert Emmet.' Next, 'Alaska.'

ORPHEUM (C. N. Sutton, mgr.)—For 20 and week, capacity business, with Lillian Mortimer and company, in 'Poor White Trash Jimmy.' For Amos, Sanders, Fanny Rice, Collins and Brown, Chinko, the juggler; Minnie Kaufman, Three Leightons, Orpheum pictures and Gillette's Orchestra.

FAMILY (G. N. Crawford, mgr.)—For 13 and week: Bonnie Gaylord, Lewis and Young, the Great Kinnear, Folk and Leon, Redwood and Gordon, and moving pictures. Big business. Redwood and Gordon were held over from the previous week.

NOTES.—Moving picture shows are thicker than flies around Butte, and, together with the Penny Arcades, do a wonderful business. By May 1 the Columbia Gardens will

SOZODONT

IS UNEQUALLED AS A TOOTH TONIC

Unknown and untried dentifrices are tremendous factors in the destruction of the teeth. The employment of pumice, quartz, cuttlefish-bone, alum, acids and fermentable sugars is common in the manufacture of dentifrices.

SOZODONT Tooth Powder, SOZODONT Tooth Paste and SOZODONT Liquid are absolutely free from any of these injurious ingredients. They are tonics for the teeth and leave a delicious fragrance and sensation of cleanliness for hours after use.

FREE TO ASTHMA SUFFERERS

We want every sufferer from Asthma to write us to-day for a free trial of our wonderful New Method for curing Asthma. We especially desire those cases of long standing which have tried all the various kinds of inhalers, douches and patent smokes without number and without relief. We know we can cure them. We want to and are willing to prove it absolutely free of cost. Many thousands have accepted this opportunity and are now cured. There is no reason why anyone, old or young, rich or poor, should continue to suffer from Asthma after reading this marvelous offer.

CHICAGO LETTER ADDITIONAL.

Bayonne Whipple, who has been featured and starred for a number of years in dramatic productions, went into vaudeville, 14, at Sheboygan, Wis., and has been booked for the rest of the season by the Western Vaudeville Managers' Association. She has an act in which she uses her excellent singing voice to advantage, besides giving several humorous and dramatic recitations.

Anne Bronaugh has been promoted to leading business of the Bijou, taking the place of Lorna Elliott. Miss Bronaugh was formerly connected with various stock companies in this city, and during the earlier part of this season was featured with "Graustark" on the road.

Virginia Hammond, leading lady for E. H. Sothern, who is a Chicago lady, is only twenty years of age, and has already made a name for herself by her excellent acting. Last year, her first in the business, she made a successful tour of the country in "The Fool Hath Said," after a few performances in a minor role.

William Burriss, who is one of the members of "The Family" Co., which is rehearsing for the opening at "Powers," is ill in bed, and rehearsals have been halted until he is able to go on with the work.

Punch Wheeler sends me a postal from Mexico City, showing a double row of mummies in a catacomb there, under which he has written: "Old time press agents."

Dee and Noble write me from Chester, S. C., that they are booked by the International Theatrical Exchange, and opened for them at Lexington, Ky., March 1, and have been meeting with success. They played Milton's, Union, S. C., week of 15.

Katherine Pope, a chorus girl, last season at the La Salle, and who made a big hit as the Irish Brownie, was married to Russell M. Simmons, of this city, in New York City, 10, and will come to this city.

McVicker's Theatre will be closed for two days, following the engagement of Henry Miller, to allow workmen to make the final changes in the stage, necessary for the mammoth production of "The Sign of the Cross," on which a large force has been at work already for several weeks. There are fourteen scenes in the play, and special apparatus has to be installed to handle them.

The Chicago Press League extended a very cordial invitation to your local representative to be present at a reading of "The Scarlet Letter," evening of 11, in Fullerton Hall, through the courtesy of Lillian Shaffner, who has been appearing in vaudeville of late, and is well known local press woman. Mrs. Lillian C. Parsons gave the reading, and it was very much enjoyed.

Dustin Farnum, who is appearing at McVicker's, in "The Squaw Man," has announced his engagement to Mary B. Conwell, his leading woman in the company, giving him the age as thirty-four, and that of Miss Conwell as twenty-seven, and her home as Cadiz, O. They are both residing at the Stratford Hotel during their stay.

Shirley and De Forest put their screaming farce, "The Jay Circus," on at Schindler's Theatre last week, and the team made a tremendous hit, being recalled again and again. It was the biggest act which has been played in this house, and made the biggest hit, according to reports from the house.

Bruce Rinaldo and his wife, who have been with the Woods Sisters Co. all this season, playing through the Southwest, will leave the company at Crockett, Texas, 27, and go to Peoria at once, where they will start rehearsals for the summer stock company, of which Mr. Rinaldo will be the stage director. He and his wife were with the company last summer, and were very successful.

Frederick Julian, the clever character actor, of the Marlowe Stock Co., was a caller this week. He has played an excellent line of parts during the season, in all of which he has been eminently successful, and has received some very fine notices.

Charles N. McHenry, in "The Traveling Salesman," will open the summer row of festivities at the Illinois, April 12, following two weeks of Olga Nethersole.

Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson, authors of "The Man from Home" and "Cameo Kirby," in the latter of which Dustin Farnum will open the coming week, will have a new play for Mabel Tallaferro next season, entitled "The Return of a Soul," which they are writing around her personality. She is at present playing at the Illinois.

Anne Sutherland, succeeded Grace Elliston in the leading female role of "The Devil," at the Grand Opera House, evening of 12, Miss Elliston being threatened with an attack of nervous prostration.

Chester N. B. Emanuel conducted the new Philharmonic Orchestra at its initial performance at the Actors' Fund benefit, and the audience gave the musicians great applause. In this assemblage of musicians has been opened at 427 Reper Block, where a large force of operators is kept at work on plays, manuscripts, parts, etc. In this way managers and actors can secure the services of a stenographer for correspondence or any other work at a time.

Eddie Leonard, who has been with the Honey Boy Minstrels this season, will be seen in vaudeville again, appearing at the Majestic, this city, in May.

Mrs. McHugh has received some of the finest notices this week which an actor could possibly wish for his excellent drawing of the character of Nat Berry, in "Shore Acres," at the College Theatre, some of the papers comparing him very favorably with James H. Horne. He is said to be the only actor who has played the part in stock, the College being the first to secure it.

Ralph T. Ketterling, general press representative of the Marvin theatres, has engaged Earl Stirling, Herbert Bates and Farrell McKnight, of the College; Ella Marshall and Thomas Swift, of the People's, for his summer stock in Kansas City, where they will open at the New Crawford, and be known as the Patrons' Stock Co.

William T. Gaskell, for a number of years connected in a business capacity with the firm of Rowland & Clifford, of this city, and this season business manager of "Jane Eyre" for them, in which his wife, Cuba Niblo, starred, has been appointed general business manager of all the attractions of Edwin Rowland, Mr. Rowland having taken over the road attractions of the old firm when it was dissolved some weeks ago.

Olga Nethersole, supported by William Morris, Robert T. Haines and others, will be seen at the Illinois, 29, in "The Writing on the Wall," a new play, by William J. Hurlburt, author of "The Fighting Hope," and a native of this city.

When "Fatty Felix," the new musical comedy, by Ralph T. Ketterling, is produced at Aurora, Easter Sunday, a special feature will be the Indian number, "Manitou," the music for which was composed by the late Ivan L. Davis, musical director at the time of his death at the Auditorium Theatre.

Colin Campbell, general stage director of the Marvin houses, will stage the new show, rehearsal of which will start at once. John M. Riley will be the business manager, and J. W. Williams, manager.

Mrs. Fliske became very much interested, during her recent engagement at the Grand, in the Illinois Child Labor Law, which interfered considerably with her production of "Salvation Nell." The State law will not allow children under sixteen years of age to play on the stage, and local managers are looking towards an amendment of this, in which Mrs. Fliske joins them heartily.

C. Jay Smith will have six new companies on the road next season, playing "The Girl from Sweden," "Over the Hills to the Poor House," "A Happy Swede," "The Price Paid," "The Boy Behind the Bat" and "Clem Holder," as well as his old plays of "A Pair of Country Kids" and "Sis Perkins," both of which have been very successful. He also has a share in "Fatty Felix."

Ralph T. Ketterling will have three stock companies playing over the air dome circuits this summer, two over the Roy Crawford time and the other over the Bell Ollendorf time. People are being engaged for the companies now.

Billy Reeves, who plays "the drunk" in "The Follies of 1908," at the Auditorium, hurt his back quite badly, evening of 10, in making one of his comedy falls from the comic box to the stage, but was able to continue with the performance, though in great pain, and having to go through the boxing match with Harry Watson Jr. The following evening, though not over the effects of the strain, he worked as though nothing had happened.

"The Little Nemo" Co., at present packing the Colonial, will be taken to London by Klaw & Erlanger some time in the future, to show the Britishers what producers in this country can do in the way of spectacles.

Frederick St. John, leader of the Thomas Orchestra, has written a symphony, which will be played for the first time by the Thomas Orchestra at the opening of the Fall season.

"Faust," with Isobel Morrison as Marquise, will be seen here for two weeks, commencing April 4.

William A. Brady offers the pictures of the Johnson-Burns fight at the Auditorium, Sunday, 21, for two weeks.

Jimmy Callahan, formerly a ball player in one of the big league teams here, and at present manager of the Logan Square Ball Club, is a member of "The Boy and the Girl" Co., opening at the Whitney, 20. He gives a monologue consisting of baseball and Irish dialect stories.

OUR HAVANA LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

HAVANA, March 13.

Chello, a young Spanish girl, who dances seductively, is the reigning queen of vaudeville here at present. She has several of the Oriental and Parisian dances which she gives in costumes more elaborate than have been seen in this town in many a day. Added to this Chello has had the experience of the police stopping her dance on a few occasions, so the box office receipts are counted by the number of her appearances and the capacity of the theatres in which she appears.

The Frank Costa circuit now has two theatres, and Chello appears in both of them. The actual dates, and who are really worth hearing. Hurl-Portella, a cosmopolitan dancing pair, who are making good. Then there are the Philipps Sisters, who opened last night, and Victoria, who does a mysterious juggling act.

The Spanish Grand Opera Co., at the National, is not drawing the houses which grand opera generally does in Havana.

An engagement of Julia Marlowe is announced for Havana during the coming autumn. There is, of course, great expectation on the part of the Americans and English speaking people of Havana, but this element does not go far enough to support a big attraction like this. And heretofore great stars have left Havana with opinions which were different from those entertained when they came. Sarah Bernhardt was one of them, and Rejane was another, and there have been many others.

An item of political news will be of interest to the profession who have visited Havana. Sr. Aniceto Valdivia, better known as "Conde Kostia," dramatic critic and theatrical impresario, has been appointed envoy extraordinary and minister plenipotentiary to the republic of Uruguay.

Conde Kostia was during the government of Charles E. Magoon, a candidate for appointment as minister to Italy, but did not succeed in landing it. He has not yet gone to his post, but is keeping up his theatrical department in La Lucha.

Emma Calve has come to Cuba and gone, having made several records during her stay on the island. Her first record was the manner in which she filled the Payret Theatre, at advanced prices. She sang three concerts, and there was not a seat vacant at either performance. Another record Mme. Calve made was to be under three different managements while giving her tour of ten concerts on the island. During her Havana engagement, Fred W. Bussey was manager, and S. Kronberg was advance man. Then they brought their business to a close, and the Costa-Misa-Gomez combination took the task of managing her through a tour over the island. They did not retain that management more than a week, when they turned it over to another, who represented Mme. Calve herself.

Herr Meisel, the violinist, who made such a great hit during the Calve engagement in Havana, returned to the States with Fred W. Bussey, when the latter terminated his connection with the Calve tour.

Publiones' Circus closed here 8, after a return engagement for the present season, and went to Cienfuegos. With the Publiones went the Ernesto Sisters, wire performers; Mr. Dio and his ponies and dogs, Madame Alice and her cats, Louise and her monkeys, the Great Sidi, and the Lowandes.

Rebello, the wire walker, who made a short but successful trip to the States the early part of the winter, was injured recently on account of the wet condition of his shoes while going through his act. He is not working, taking his rest in the healing up process of his sprained knee, on which he feels.

The Abisu Theatre, of Havana, is doing a better business this winter in zarzuela, or Spanish light opera, than it has in recent years.

West Indies that Harry Clark and his Arizona company is doing a big business in the earthquake and garlic zone. Havana expects to be on the return route of Mr. Clark and his Arizona.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia.—Beginning April 12, Keith's Chestnut Street Theatre will temporarily abandon the continuous performance idea, and instead two performances will be given daily at 2 and 8 o'clock. The announcement is also made that in the Fall the continuous performances will again be resumed. New attractions are: Mrs. Pike, in "Salvation Nell," at the Adelphi; Max Rogers, in "In Panama," at the Chestnut Street Opera House, and "The Grand Army Man," at Aunt Mary's, at the Walnut.

Philadelphia Opera House (Oscar Hammerstein, mgr.).—The last week but one of the current season begins 22, with "Louise," "Navarra," and "I Pagliacci." 25, and "Trovatore," and "Thais," at the night performance. 27, Last week houses of splendid size witnessed "The Juggler of Notre Dame," "Louise," 18, and "Illegitimate" and "Faust" 20.

Albion (Messrs. Shubert, mgrs.).—Mrs. Pike, in "Salvation Nell," 22. The engagement continues for two weeks. "The New Yorks" had a successful two weeks' stay ending 20.

Lyn (Messrs. Shubert, mgrs.).—After two weeks of "The Grand Army Man," David Warr 1, will devote the next four weeks, starting 2, to "The Music Master." Business 1, week was good.

Forrest (Nixon & Zimmerman, mgrs.).—"The Yankee Prince," with Carter De Haven, scored a decided success last week to houses of fine size. Josephine Cohan, Sam J. Ryan and Tom Lewis were also in demand. The second week starts 22.

Garrick (Nixon & Zimmerman, mgrs.).—"The Boy and Betty," with Marie Cahill, was voted a big hit both by the press and the public last week. The star received a warm welcome. Eugene Cowles was also a warm favorite. The second week starts 22. "The Majesty of Birth" 20.

Hudson (Nixon & Zimmerman, mgrs.).—"The Happy Marriage" was received last week with much favor by discriminating audiences. Doris Keane and Edwin Arden were most effective in the leading roles. The final week ends 27. Billie Burke, in "Love Violets," 29.

Chestnut Street Opera House (Nixon & Zimmerman, mgrs.).—"Max Rogers," in "In Panama," 22-27. Annie Russell, in "The Stronger Sex," departed 20, after a successful two weeks' stay. "The Grand Army Man" 20.

Walnut (Frank Howe Jr., mgr.).—May Robinson, in "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," starts 22, an extended engagement.

Grand (Stall & Havlin, mgrs.).—"The Top of the World," 22, for the first time at popular prices. "Mr. Film and I" enjoyed good patronage last week. "Busy Lizzy's Boodle" 29.

Park (E. G. Nixon-Nirdlinger, mgr.).—"The Call of the Wild," 22-27, is the concluding attraction of the regular season. Beginning 29, and for the rest of the season, moving pictures and vaudeville will be installed under the management of Thomas M. Dougherty, the treasurer of the house. "Throne of Harvard" had good sized houses last week.

National (Jos. M. Kelly, mgr.).—"In Wroth," has its first local view 22. "A Millionaire's Revenge" had houses of good size last week. "Happy Hooligan and His Mule," 29.

Graham (Miller & Kaufman, mgr.).—Eugene Blair, in "The Woman in the Case," 22-29, following a week of good business enjoyed by Joe Morris, in "Too Many Wives," "Texas" 29.

Hart's (John W. Hart, mgr.).—"The Cowboy Girl," 22-27. "Messenger Boy No. 42" was enjoyed by the patrons last week, who attended in large numbers.

Chestnut (Great Lafayette, mgr.).—"The Orpheum Players" put on "In a Bishop's Carriage" 22-27. "The Heart of Maryland" was most commendably revived last week, to big houses. Marion Barney and William Ingersoll skillfully portrayed the leading roles. "Rose-dale" follows.

Gaiety (Edward Shayne, mgr.).—Weber & Ross's Ron Tons week of 22, with Guy Ramon, Frances Clare, La Belle Minna, Woods and Greene, Niblo and Spencer, and Joy and Clayton. The Cracker Jacks drew big attendance last week. The Piffoffs family were a big hit in the "Piffoffs."

Blair (George W. Rife, mgr.).—Billy Watson's company is booked for the week of 22. In addition to the star, the services of Billy Spencer, Alice Gilbert and Van Osten and Sheridan are secured. The "Fashion" troupe pleased a dozen large sized houses last week. The Strutters 29.

Casino (Ellas & Koenig, mgrs.).—Relly & Woods Show are tenants 22 and week. The old numbers are by Pa. Relly, Tyson Sisters, Spador Johnson and Dan Marcellas. The Sorenders enjoyed big patronage last week, and provided a lively show, in which, as usual, Rob Van Osten was a big fun provider. Girls of the Moulton Rouge 29.

Quorum (Charles Cromwell, mgr.).—"The Colonial Belles" 22 and week. The Yankee Doodle Girls were a speedy aggregation last week, and drew big patronage. Sadie Husted, in a Salome dance, was a big feature. The Cozy Corner Girls 29.

Kitty's (H. T. Jordan, mgr.).—Nell Burgess and company is the feature act week of 22. Others in attendance are: Nelson and Otto, Jack Wilson Trio, Edwin Barry and company, Dunedin Troupe, Evans and Lee, the Six Musical Noses, George Whiting and the Clarke Sisters, Chalk Saunders, Louis Grasset, Jules Heron, Valkeno and Lewis, Gill and Aker, Mirza-Golem Troupe, and the Kinetograph.

Ninth and Arch Museum (T. F. Hopkins, mgr.).—Joe Walcott is the big feature remaining in curio hall week of 22, in addition to Lionett, Randion, Mile, Nava, and the Neapolitan Trio. In the theatre are: Gorman and Bell, Kraft and Myrtle, Kitty Bell, Al-West, Karl Lang and Lubin's cinematograph.

Eleventh Street Opera House (Frank Dunnot, mgr.).—"Tedd Roosevelt in Africa" continues to be the lively skit that provides all of the members of the company with four lines that are received by the patrons with much satisfaction. The first part main tains its reputation of being up-to-date, and the "best song hits are rendered by the vocalists."

STANDARD.—Moving pictures and vaudeville.

MAJESTIC.—Moving pictures and vaudeville.

FOREPAUGH'S.—Moving pictures and vaudeville.

FIFTEENTH STREET.—Moving pictures and vaudeville.

PROF'S.—Moving pictures and vaudeville.

NOTES.—Starting April 12, the Grand Opera House will put on moving pictures and vaudeville at five and ten cents. Settlement was made last week whereby the Lancaster Avenue Improvement Company took title to the partially completed William Penn Theatre, Lancaster and Fairmount Avenues. The work of completing the playhouse will now be rapidly pushed, and it is hoped to have everything in readiness by the middle of September, when it will be opened under the management of William W. Miller, the lessee of the Girard and Forepaugh theatres. The Dentzel Estate has awarded a contract for the erection of a $10,000 carroussel at Woodside Park. It will be steel and concrete, and will measure 86x80ft.

Pittsburg.—At the Nixon "The Merry Widow" has become very popular, and will play the second week March 22-27. "The Kellies of 1908" 29 and week.

GLOBE (J. G. Foley, mgr.).—Week of 15: Cycling Hoffmanns, Cooper and Wilson, Carl and Walter, Tanna the Great, Kibball and Southernland, Rice and Lyons, and moving pictures. Business good.

CAMBRIA (H. W. Sherer, mgr.).—Week of 15: March and Raab, Four Stagpoles, Shedman's dogs, Gordon and Shakon, Montgomery Musical Duo, Frank Bush, Gertie Le Clair and Hake, Daly's Country Choir, the Trillers, McKeever and Finn, and moving pictures.

NOTES.—Simultaneous with the announcement by the Cambria that vaudeville productions would be inaugurated at that house at from five to twenty cents, the Majestic closed its regular Keith season March 20, and adopted a change in its regular policy by giving a show consisting of four acts from the Keith circuit, together with illustrated songs and moving pictures. Three shows will be given daily—two in the evening and one in the afternoon. It was originally the plan to split the week's presentations with the Orpheum in Altoona, but that arrangement was abandoned at the last minute. Manager Boyle, of the Majestic, in the face of vigorous public protest, states that competition has forced the present issue, and that prices would be at the prevailing rate at the other houses—five, ten and twenty cents. Announcement of the bookings for the first week under the new policy will not be made till Saturday preceding. The present situation gives promise of developing into a battle for cheaper vaudeville supremacy.

ALTOONA.—At the Mishler (I. C. Mishler, mgr.) the new departure in changing this house to vaudeville has been very encouraging to the management. The house was filled at every performance week of 15. The attractions for 22 and for three days are: Signor Strigano and his Banda Roma, the Minstrel Fohr, and Weston Young and company, and three other acts are not yet announced.

ORPHEUM (Wilmer & Vincent, mgrs.).—This house also did a good business 15 and day preceding. The present situation gives promise of developing into a battle for cheaper vaudeville supremacy.

LANCASTER.—At the Fulton Opera House (Chas. A. Vecker, mgr.) "Tempest and Sunshine" drew a good business March 16. "Fifty Miles from Boston" had good business 17. "The Old Homestead" 24, "Cattle King of company, Three Rinaldos, Harry Taylor and Walter McEldowney.

NOTES.—The Casino Theatre and moving picture house has been purchased by Harry Hatch from Julius Barron. H. R. Cohn has been retained as manager, and the house will be conducted on the same policy as in the past. Helen Hancock, a resident of Altoona, has been engaged by Harrison Grey Fiske for his forthcoming production of Roy L. McCardell's comedy, "The Gay Life," which is now in rehearsals, and which will have a Broadway presentation during the month of April. The first act of the play is laid in a railroad boarding house in Altoona.

WILKES-BARRE.—At the Nesbitt (H. A. Brown, mgr.) "The Servant in the House" played to S. R. O. "The Old Homestead" scored big. "The Millionaire's Revenge" 23, William Faversham 25, "The Golden Butterfly" 26, "Fifty Miles from Boston" 27.

POL'S (J. H. Docking, mgr.).—Week of 22: "Fun in a Boarding House," Conroy, Le Maire and company, Melville and Higgins, Henry Clive, Carletta, McPhee and Hill, cinematograph, and added feature, A. O. Duncan, ventriloquist.

LUTHERAN (L. H. Baker, mgr.).—Williams' Imperials had good business. Morning, Noon and Night played. The Tiger Lilies 22-24, U. S. Belles 25-27, Fashion Plates 29-31.

HARRISBURG.—At the Majestic (M. Reis, mgr.) "The Servant in the House" did well March 15, and "The Servant in the House" was a paying attraction 16. Elbert Hubbard lectured to a big audience 18. "The Old Homestead" 23, Grace Van Studdiford 24, "Merely Mary Ann" 25, and Wm. Faversham 27.

SHENANDOAH.—At the New O'Hara (J. W. Major, mgr.) "Pald in Full," March 15, with James Montgomery and Jane Kennard, played two splendid performances, to appreciative audiences. Moving pictures and illustrated songs, 16-20, with Franklin Farnum, late of the "LIT" Mose" Co., singing songs. "The Witching Hour" April 6.

MISSOURI.—At the Century (P. Short, mgr.) Fannie Ward, in "The New Lady Henderson," 22-27. Last Monday night Henry Miller produced, for the first time on any stage, William Vaughn Moody's "The Faith Healer." Regarding the drama some opinions have been favorable and others much to the contrary. Mr. Miller stated in St. Louis last week that he would not present it again for some time to come after the engagement here. The question of sacrifice in the play has been raised by no small number. On this point Messrs. Miller and Moody have both protested that there is none in it to their minds. Odis Harlan, with "A Broken Idol," 29 and week.

OLYMPIC (P. Short, mgr.).—"A Girl at the Helm" 21-27. Montgomery and Stone entertained capacity houses. Walker Whiteside next week.

GRAND (Jno. G. Fleming, mgr.).—Johnny and Emma Ray, in "Kleg Casey," 21-27. Archie Boyd, in "Shore Acres," 21-27. George Schuberth Bros., mgrs.).—"Madam Butterfly" 21-April 3. George Arliss' performances in "The Devil" were highly polished and entertaining.

IMPERIAL (D. E. Russell, mgr.).—Beulah Poynter starts 22 the first week of her stock engagement, in "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall." Avais Page, with "East Lynne," did good business. "In the Bishop's Carriage" next.

HAYLIS (Wm. G. Green, mgr.).—"In the Nick of Time" 21-27. A pleasing and business-attracting thriller was "The Cowboy and the Squaw." Lillian Mortimer next.

STANDARD (Leo Relchenbach, mgr.).—Frank B. Carr's Thoroughbreds 21-27. Salda, the Oriental dancer, and Miner's American Burlesque got the crowds. The Ducklings next.

GAIETY (O. T. Crawford, mgr.).—Al. Reeves' Beauty Show 21-27. Clark's Runaway Girls drew good business. Robie's Kneckerbockers next.

AMERICAN (S. N. Oppenheimer, mgr.).—Edwards' Country Kids, Kathryn Row Palmer, Hamilton and Ronca, Colby and May, Artols Bros., Les Durando, Jack Hawkins, and pictures of Browns in action at Houston. Business continues good.

COLUMBIA (Frank Tate, mgr.).—Week of 22: Clara Belle Jerome, Marshall P. Wilder, Sullivan-Pasquella company, Mr. and Mrs. Allison, Joe Marsh, Nichols Sisters, Les Salvagis, and Blissette and Newman.

GERMAN (P. Wells, mgr.).—"A double bill night of 21, when "Der Ungeladete Gaste" and "Flotte Borsche" were presented. It was the occasion of Marianna Thaller's benefit.

NOTES.—Adela Verna gave a matinee recital at the Odeon 20, which was well attended. Manager Green, of Havlin's, announces that there is no truth in the report that his theatre will be devoted to motion pictures next season. Madeline Louis, a St. Louis girl, playing the leading role in James K. Hackett's "Crisis," has been receiving complimentary notices from all the critics in cities where this piece has been presented. A good crowd attended the Cave-Nail benefit at the Century Monday night.

KANSAS CITY.—At the Willis Wood Theatre (O. D. Woodward, mgr.) last week Lay Fields, in "The Girl Behind the Counter," pleased everyone. He was assisted by Pearl Lund, Lottie Fremont, Daisy Dumont and Chas. Judels. This week Henry Miller comes. On Monday night he will present, for the first time on any stage, a new American drama, by Robert H. David, called, "The Family." The latter part of the week he will give his success, "The Great Divide." Next week, "The Traitor."

GRAND THEATRE (Hudson & Judah, mgrs.).—Al. G. Field and his Greater Minstrels played their annual engagement here last week. The fun makers were Al. G. Field, Doc Quigley, Billy Clark, Bun Granville and Tommy Donnelly, and the singers were Chas. Reinhardt, Walter Shorth, Geo. T. Martin and John Dickens. This week, Kathryn O'Leary, in "The Night of the Play." Next week, York and Adams, in "Playing the Poles."

SHUBERT THEATRE (Earl Steward, mgr.).—Last week "The Lion and the Mouse" was ably presented by Oliver Byron, Malcolm Duncan, Martin Sabine and Edith Barker. This week, Florence Roberts, in "The House of Bondage." Next week, Max Figman.

ORPHEUM THEATRE (Martin Lehman, mgr.).—Bill week of 22, "The Great Sex-ette," Pellaton and Foran, Signor Travato, Julie Ring, Bertie Fowler, the Sisters De Fave, and Joe Cook and Brother.

AUDITORIUM THEATRE (O. D. Woodward, mgr.).—Last week, the Woodward Stock Co. gave the old time laugh hit, "My Friend from India." Week of 22, "The Gates of Eden." "The Holy City" 29.

GILLIS THEATRE (E. S. Brigham, mgr.).—Last week the familiar melodrama, "Shadows of a Great City," with its realistic water scene, went big with the Gillis enthusiasts. Arthur Garrett, Wm. Brummel, and Josie and Estell Antrim were the principals. Week of 22, "Bucco in Arizona." In the Nick of Time 29.

MAJESTIC THEATRE (Thos. Hodgeman, mgr.).—Last week, Al. Reeve and his big company gave one of the best shows and scored one of the largest hits that has been made here this season. Week of 22, Robie's Kneckerbockers; the Trocadero 28.

CENTURY THEATRE (Hudson & Judah, mgr.).—Last week, the Thoroughbreds gave good performances and pleased. Week of 22, the Ducklings. The Jolly Girls 29.

CONVENTION HALL (Louis Shouse, mgr.).—Last week, Wright Lorimer, in "The Shepherd King," had a good week's business and pleased.

HIPPODROME (J. R. Mansur, mgr.).—Last week's acts were the Younger Bros., gymnasts and balancers; Sid De Clairville, in a loop walking Spanish web and flying trapeze act. In the animal show, Cardo and Charles Graham, Ethel Bondy and George Gundell present the bill. In the vaudeville theatre the acts were Mildred Souders, Opal Stewart, Prof. Mack, Van and Keenan, and Van and Trussell.

CLIPPING.—Our oldtime friend, Jake Rosenthal, was in town all of last week, doing his usual clever advance work for his wife, Kathryn Osterman. Fred Beckman went through here last week telling all about 101 Ranch, and their trip through old Mexico. Jason Raterick, treasurer of the Grand, has been presented with the famous old CLIPPER which used to be the feature of the famous Charles Purvis collection. THE CLIPPER is dated, Sept. 27, 1858. It was presented to Mr. Raterick by Mr. Chittot, who bought the Purvis collection. THE CLIPPER has been handsomely framed and will occupy a prominent place in the Grand Theatre.

St. Joseph.—At Tootle's (C. U. Philler, mgr.) Florence Roberts did well March 15. Lombard Opera Co. 19, 20, Lew Fields 21, 22, Wright Lorimer 23, "The Traitor" 27, Yiddish Opera Co. 28, Ben Greet Players 29. LYCEUM (C. U. Philler, mgr.).—"The Message from Mars," to big business, 14-17. The Ducklings 18, for three nights, to fine business. "Shadows of a Great City" 21-24. Jolly Girls 25-27, "Holy City" 28, 29.

LYRIC (C. U. Philler & R. Van Houten, mgrs.).—Good bill and big houses.

CRYSTAL (Fred Cosman, mgr.).—Bill for week of 21: Dale Sisters, Ross and Adams, De Kock Brothers, Lee Bedds and company, Frank Groh. Business continues fine.

NEBRASKA.—At Boyd's (E. J. Monaghan, mgr.) "The Lion and the Mouse" opened a broad night engagement March 21. The Russian Symphony Orchestra and Ben Greet Players come 26, 27. Max Figman, in "The Substitute," did good business 14-17. Florence Roberts, in "The House of Bondage," had good business 18-20.

WOODCOCK (E. G. Johnson, mgr.).—The stock company presented "Mistress Nell" to large audiences the past week. "Mizpah" 21 and week, "Because She Loved Him So" 28 and week.

ORPHEUM (W. P. Byrne, mgr.).—A fine bill the past week drew crowded houses. Week of 21: Grigolatti's Acrobatic Ballet, Julie Herne, Billy Van, Novelty Dancing Four, Donald and Carson, Borani and Nevato, Fonda, Dell and Fonda, Kinetograph.

KRIS ("Doc" Reed, mgr.).—"The Holy City" opened a four night engagement 21. "Shadows of a Great City" 23-27. "The Awakening of Mr. Pipp" had good business 14-17. "Too Proud to Beg," fair business, 18-20.

John J. and Maurice A. Shea Injured.

John J. Shea, manager of the Bijou Theatrical Booking Agency, in the St. James Building, New York City, had five ribs broken and otherwise was seriously hurt in a collision of carriages in Central Park, on Sunday afternoon, March 21. His brother, Maurice A. Shea, was injured also.
The Sheas were taken to Roosevelt Hospital, and it was found that in addition to the broken ribs, John Shea seemingly had internal injuries and a fractured skull. His condition was said to be grave. The cuts that were his brother's only injuries were dressed, and Maurice A. then went to his home, at 59 Cathedral Parkway.

Mabel Fenton Has Pneumonia.

Mabel Fenton (Mrs. Charles Ross) is seriously ill at the sanitarium of Mrs. M. J. Malloy, of 232 West Fifty-second Street, New York City. So charming was her condition on Monday that Mr. Ross, who was playing in Atlantic City, was sent for.
At the sanitarium it was said Miss Fenton had pneumonia, and that her condition was grave.

Annette Kellermann Stopped by Injunction.

As the result of a Federal Court injunction secured by R. F. Keith restraining Annette Kellermann from presenting her diving, ball, and dancing act at the American Music Hall, New York City, Miss Kellermann on Monday, March 22, continued her sketch to a demonstration of physical culture exercises and a moving picture display of the swimmer's diving.
Miss Kellermann will continue the abbreviated act until the injunction is vacated.

"The Conflict" Produced.

The first performance of "The Conflict," a four act play, by Maurice W. Samuels, was given at Plainfield, N. J., after noon of Saturday, March 20. It is based on Balzac's "The Wild Ass's Skin," but differs materially from the novel in that it ends with the restoration of Raphael De Valentine to health and happiness.
Robert Dromet played Raphael, Helen Robinson was Fedora Warona, and Florence Lester was Rosine Lorian. Others in the cast were: N. Sheldon, and Lewis and Harry Kelton. The production is the initial venture of Paul H. Liebler.

"The Fortune Hunter" Produced.

"The Fortune Hunter" was produced at the Hyperion Theatre, New Haven, Conn., evening of March 22. It is a comedy, by Winchell Smith, and was well received. The leading roles were taken by Thomas W. Ross and Mary Ryan. An aerial performance, characters were filled by Forest Brien, Sydney Brunsorth, Horace James, Alice Parks, Edna Bruns and Kathryn Marshall.

"The Family" Produced.

"The Family," by Robert H. Davis, had its premiere at the Willis Wood Theatre, Kansas City, Mo., evening of March 22, and was well acted by Henry Miller's company.
It was cordially received by a large and fashionable audience. Those in the cast are: Henry H. Donnelly, John Westly, George W. Howard, Mabel Bert, Florence Fisher and Edith Spence.

George C. Tyler Sings.

George C. Tyler, of Lybier & Co., sang for the first time Tuesday morning, accompanied by Walter Hackett.

COHAN & HARRIS' "The American Idea," forty-five minutes from Broadway, and Cohan & Harris' Minstrels will close March 27.

"Mr. Him and I" will close March 27. VANITY concluded her Lincoln Square engagement after opening the show, afternoon of March 22.

HATTIE STEWART underwent a successful surgical operation last week at a New York hospital, and is doing nicely.

CLARA W. FOURER, professionally known as Clara Duffie, late of the team Rich and Duffie, was married in her home town to Wm. E. George, an aerial performer, on March 18. The couple will spend their honeymoon at Jacksonville, Fla., leaving Sunday night.

John S. Reh and Tony Fay gave them a big send-off.

BECKNER sails for Europe March 27. DAVE KRAUS will build a new theatre in Harlem.

THE KIBBOS inform us that a baby boy was born to Mrs. Kibbos in Chicago, Ill., on March 20.

GOING FROM BAD TO WORSE

It's bad enough at the start to put your money in one of the heavy old fashioned canvas covered wood trunks, but after you have paid out so much excess baggage charges on it that it stands you in several times the original cost, you feel that you have gone from bad to worse.

Why not start right! Buy a BAL FIBRE TRUNK and let it save you money each week by its lighter weight and greater strength!

Send for Catalogue C. WILLIAM BAL, Inc., Builders of BAL FIBRE TRUNKS, 210 West 43d St., New York.

FOUR CONSECUTIVE WEEKS IN NEW YORK

THE QUEEN OF TERPSICHOPE PART of Both Continents

Now in Her Second Week at the American Music Hall, New York

Criterion Theatre (Charles Frohman, mgr.)—An Englishman's Home, the much heralded three-act play by Major Guy du Maurier, which made such a profound impression in England, and which was said to be a remarkable bit of playwriting and satire, is in reality a dull, amateurish effort, which seems silly to us, and which makes absolutely no appeal to Americans. It was given its first New York hearing on March 22, and the audience could not refrain from laughing in the wrong places nor from feeling bored when the serious portions of the play were reached. Major du Maurier, who is a son of the man who wrote "Tribby," shows no evidence of inheriting his father's literary talent, and it is not for the fact that the play just seems to touch on a sore spot—or a fancied sore spot—in the English skin, it would not have met with an instant's consideration at the hands of the managers. Properly handled, the material embodied in it could have been made interesting to all English speaking people, but the author has shown no skill at playwriting and his work is feeble and disappointing from every viewpoint. The story tells of the fancied security of a certain Mr. Brown, whose English home is finally invaded by a foreign enemy, and who is afterward pestered by English volunteers who know nothing of military tactics, and who make a burlesque defense of the Brown household, only to flee when the enemy returns and makes things hot for the English. But Brown remains to defend his home, and is finally led off and shot. Wm. Hawtree did well as Brown, and George M. Grant as a noodle-pated young Britisher, who is finally killed by a stray bullet, did the most comic work of the piece. J. H. Bonomo played the role of the German prince, Yolande, with dignity and conviction. The others have little to do. The cast: Mr. Brown, William Hawtree; Reggie Brown, Edgar Norton; Syd Brown, Master Geo. Carke; Geoffrey Smith, George M. Grant; Paul Robinson, Dallas Anderson; Maggie Brown, Nellie Thorne; Amy Brown, Nellie Malcolm; Ada Jones, Dorothy Fraleigh; Captain Finch, Ernest Stillard; Captain Lindsay, Lawrence Grant; Lieut. Jackson, Thomas Mills; Color-Sergeant Harris, Frank Shannon; Prince Yolande, J. H. Bonomo; Lieut. Khan Hobart, Adolph Neudorff; Sergeant Thol, Joseph Adelmann; Sergeant Garth, Otto Meyer; Doctor E. Percival Stevens, An Officer, Algonquin Eden; Telephone Operator, Edmund Morris. Antor Theatre (Waggoner & Kemper, mgrs.)—William Hodge, in "The Man from Home," began his thirty-first week March 22.

Bijou Dream (Union Square).—The combination of moving pictures and illustrated songs is drawing a large attendance at every performance.

Belasco Theatre (David Belasco, mgr.)—Blanche Bates, in "The Fighting Hero," began her tenth week at this house March 22.

Gaiety (Klaw & Erlanger, Cohan & Hart, mgrs.)—"The Traveling Salesman" continued its twenty-ninth week at this house March 22.

Bijou Dream (Fifty-eighth Street).—An attractive variety of motion pictures continues to fill the house with amusement lovers.

Bijou Dream (Twenty-third Street).—Frequent changes of the motion pictures shown here are drawing the Westsiders in large numbers.

Empire Theatre (Chas. Frohman, mgr.)—Maudie Adams commenced the fourth week of her engagement in "What Every Woman Knows," March 22.

Academy of Music (E. F. Van Dusen, mgr.)—"Brewster's Millions" began its third week March 22.

Lyric Theatre (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, mgrs.)—"The Blue Mouse" began its seventeenth week March 22.

Hudson Theatre (Henry B. Harris, mgr.)—"The Third Degree" commenced its eighth week March 22. Earle Williams has replaced Francis Byrne in the cast.

Stuyvesant Theatre (David Belasco, mgr.)—Frances Starr commenced her tenth week in "The Eastward Way," March 22.

Wallack's (Charles Burnham, mgr.)—This house is dark. "Votes for Women" having closed after the performance March 20.

Liberty Theatre (Klaw & Erlanger, mgrs.)—Mrs. Leslie Carter, in "Kassa," closed March 20, and the house will be dark until Wednesday, 24, when Robert Hilliard will appear in "A Fool's Trick."

Manhattan Opera House (Oscar Hammerstein, mgr.)—I Puritani was sung Wednesday night, March 21. Princess d'Auberge 19, La Navarraise and I Padellai constituted the double bill matinee of 20, the former then receding after the performance March 20.

Metropolitan Opera House.—The Bartered Bride was the bill Wednesday night, March 17; Faust 18, Die Walkure 19, Falstaff was revived matinee of 20, with this cast: Sir John Falstaff, Antonio Scotti; Fenton, Rinaldo Grassi; Ford, Giuseppe Campanelli; Dr. Calio, Angelo Rada; Bardolfo, Albert Reiss; Píotola, Adamo Didur; Mrs. Alice Ford, Emma Destina; Nanetta, Frances Alda; Mrs. Quickly, Maria Gay; Mrs. Meg Page, Mary Rausenberg. The Saturday night performance was given for the benefit of the Pension and Endowment Fund of the Metropolitan Opera Co. The bill included the first act of I Padellai, the first act of The Bartered Bride, the second act of Aida, Don Giovanni, the fifth act of Faust, and the last scene of Die Walkure. Monday night, 22, Falstaff was repeated.

Maxine Elliott's Theatre (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, mgrs.)—Charles Cherry, in "The Bachelor," began his second week March 22.

Bijou Theatre (A. C. Campbell, mgr.)—Thomas A. Wise and Douglas Fairbanks began their twenty-sixth week in "A Gentleman from Mississippi," March 22.

New York Hippodrome (Shubert & Anderson, mgrs.)—"Sporting Days," "The Land of Birds," "The Battle in the Skies," began their twenty-eighth week March 22.

The usual aquatic features are presented, and business continues big. The People's Choral Union, Frank Baumrosch, director, rendered "Elijah," accompanied by the New York Symphony Orchestra, on Sunday night, 21.

Casino (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, mgrs.)—James T. Powers, in "Havana," began his seventh week March 22.

Daly's Theatre (Sam S. & Lee Shubert, mgrs.)—Earle Williams began his sixth week in "The Goddess of Reason," March 22.

Majestic Theatre (W. L. Rowland, mgr.)—The Newlyweds and Their Baby, a farcical comedy, founded on the cartoons of George McManus, was given its first local production at this house on Monday night, March 22, with an audience of good proportions in attendance. The new piece was first produced at the Lyceum Theatre, Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 7, 1908. The book is by Aaron Hoffman and Paul West, the lyrics by Paul West and Seymour Brown, and the music by Nat D. Ayer and John W. Bratton. The latter and John Laffer are responsible for the production, and Frank Smithson must be given credit for an excellent staging of the piece. The production succeeds admirably in carrying out the evident intention of the authors to create laughter, besides appealing to the lovers of jingling music, and catering to the eye in brilliant costumes and groupings. Nimbly dances, funny comedians (no less than four), a midget, or perhaps two, and five years, who can act, and who also "doubles" as the Newlyweds' baby of seventeen months, and we have matter for an evening of excellent entertainment. When the actors cease for a time in trying to recover the baby, who is repeatedly stolen, they invariably resort to singing and dancing, or the stage is filled with prettily costumed women or sprightly "kiddies," so that there is not a dull moment during the action of the piece. Plot there is none, except the stealing of the Newlyweds' baby. But the fun, both in the lines and situations, is there in large quantity. From the very first funny entrance of the "baby" (who crept on the stage backward), to the final curtain, the audience of Monday night laughed incessantly at the clever work of James E. Rosen, the midget, and endorsed all the songs, dances, etc., until a late hour brought the piece to an end. Besides Mr. Rosen, excellent work was done by all who participated in making the evening a very enjoyable one. The musical numbers which were most liked and applauded may be mentioned: "Napoleon," "The Boogie Woogie," "Every Baby is a Sweet Bouquet," and "Can't You See I Love You?" The cast in full: Ferdinand Newlywed, William St. John; Napoleon Newlywed, and Major Knott Much, James E. Rosen; Tom Travers, Fletcher Norton; Prof. August Nichol, Irving Brooks; Adolph Nichol, George P. Murphy; Dr. I. Curren, Tom Hadaway; Mrs. Newlywed, Ruby Ray; Grandmother, Mrs. Agnes; Baby John, Carrie Reynolds; Bolivar, Alfred Grady; Sergeant Daly, Harry Murphy; Dora, Minnie Higgins; Cora, Nancy Neville; Violet, Marguerite Florence; Rose, Leona Remington; Mary, Enid Gibson; Kate, Minnie Higgins; Janette, Elsie; Charlie, George; Baby John, Ray, Helen La Velle; Maria, Maola Stock; Dale, Ellen; Irene Hastings; Polly, Irene Von Mueller; Charlotte, Jennie Lippman; Louise, May Wesley. Executive staff for the Lyceum-Bratton Company: W. C. Cameron, Manager; Tom North, Business Manager; Lester Brown, stage manager; Carl E. Corwin, carpenter; Paul J. Miner, electrician; Fred Lapp, assistant electrician; Tim O'Donnell, properties; Mrs. Willekins, wardrobe mistress.

Low Fields' Herald Square Theatre (Harry M. Hyams, mgr.)—After two nights of darkness, this house re-opened Wednesday night, March 17, with Bertha Gailand, in The Return of Eve, a "modern fantasy," in three acts, by Lee Wilson Dodd. In selecting his subject, Mr. Dodd hit upon a very happy and novel idea, and one from which an author more seasoned in the art of playwriting could have evolved a play of great interest. But, though the theme has not been developed to its fullest, Mr. Dodd has, nevertheless, written a play which commands considerable attention. The story deals with two young people, appropriately named Adam and Eve, who, in their infancy, were adopted by a wealthy man, and were reared in seclusion by Old Tinkers, a man selected by their foster parent. They have grown up together in the belief that they are brother and sister, isolated from the world, and seeing no one but their caretaker, Winters. On the death of their foster father they become his heirs, and they are lured from their seclusion by relatives. They have grown up together in the belief that they are brother and sister, isolated from the world, and seeing no one but their caretaker, Winters. Yorkville Theatre (Frank Gersten, mgr.)—The long engagement of Mildred Holland at this theatre ends on Saturday night next. For her farewell performance she is appearing in The Lady of Lyons, in the role of Pauline Deschanelles, and Robert Connes that of Claude Melnotte.

Miner's Eighth Avenue Theatre (Edwin D. Miner, mgr.)—The Dreamland Burlesque, with Dave Matton as the star attraction, opening to a crowded house March 22. The Cherry Blossoms follow.

Murray Hill Theatre (J. Herbert Mack, mgr.)—The Bowerly Burlesque drew crowded houses 22. Next week, the Vanity Fair Co.

Miner's Bowery Theatre (Edwin D. Miner, mgr.)—The Merry Maidens and Choctaw drew well 22. Next week, the Tiger Lilies.

London Theatre (Jas. H. Curtin, mgr.)—The Imperials and The Girl in Blue opened big 22. Morning, Noon and Night will follow 23.

Third Avenue Theatre (Frank Keeney, mgr.)—The vaudeville bill includes: The Harringtons, novelty act; Coulter and Wilson, comedians; John Elliott, illustrated songs; "Frontier Fete," the Flatts, Hays and Alpoint, in "The Clerk, the Bellhop and the Circus Queen," and moving pictures.

Manhattan Theatre (Wm. J. Gane, mgr.)—Business continues big and the attractions high class. Billie Seaton is in her fourth week of her hit-making Ex-Tangany. May Florine Linden, in songs, is as delightful as ever in her fourth week. The Plymouth Quartette, in songs, and P. G. Thornton, character comedian.

Grand Street Theatre (Al. H. Woods, mgr.)—The Days of Working Girls is presented by the stock company this week. Next week, "The Queen of the Highway."

Olympic Theatre (Murry Kraus, mgr.)—The Majestic Burlesque is the attraction here this week, with an excellent programme. Next attraction, Rose Hill English Holly Co.

Union Theatre (E. J. Well, mgr.)—Amusement lovers are flocking here daily to see the excellent moving pictures and vaudeville that is always on tap.

Devery Theatre (Wm. H. Fox Amusement Co., mgrs.)—The management offers a bill as strong as usual with the ever pleasing moving pictures.

Fourteenth Street Theatre (J. Wesley Rosenquest, mgr.)—Good business still continues, the vaudeville and moving pictures being up to the usual mark.

Huber's Museum (John H. Anderson, mgr.)—The curio hall and theatre hold the Lincoln Square Theatre (George N. Ballenger, mgr.)—There was a slight change of policy inaugurated here on Monday, 22, when the length of the programmes was extended by the addition of acts which will eliminate the former intermissions. This will tend to give the theatre's patrons a longer show, but it would be difficult, indeed, to produce better vaudeville entertainment than that which the firm of William Morris Inc. has provided here this season. The bill this week is headed by Amelia Bingham and her company, in "Big Moments from Great Plays." Maude Odell continues as a feature in her parting act, "The Maid at the Bath." Stella Mayhew was well received on Monday, giving an entertaining musical skit, entitled "The Lost Boy," and the long bill also lists: Edward Rosanquet, violinist; Henry Helme, French singer; Three Lloyds (first appearance here), in their double burlesque specialty: Mitchell and Cain, comedians; Black and Jones, colored comedians; the Ragtime Contest in piano playing; William Robbins, illustrated songs; Mile. Vanity, dancer, and the Blanescope.

Colonial Theatre (Percy G. Williams, mgr.)—Anna Laughlin and Jos. E. Howard head an excellent bill here this week, presenting an entertaining musical skit, entitled "Entertaining My Big Sister's Beau." They scored a fine success at both Monday performances. There are three other big feature acts on the bill this week, the Bowser-Hinkle company appearing for the first time in a play, entitled "Superstition," the Musical Elephants, finely trained pachyderms, who perform upon musical instruments, and a splendidly drilled body of young men in military exercises, known as "The Boy in Blue." Other interesting acts are: Charlie Case, who talks about his father; Holden's maulkins, an elaborate automaton act; Lillian Tyce, in Irish songs; the Reif Bros., expert dancers; Willis and Hassan, acrobats, and the viagraph.

American Music Hall (William Morris, mgr.)—Business continues big and novelties are introduced each week. Annette Kellermann, who was engaged as a feature attraction, was not permitted to do her diving and diablo playing, on account of a Keith injunction, but gave an exhibition of physical culture exercises, and pictures of her diving act were displayed. Sabaret is in her second triumphal week, and her beauty and grace lend a distinguished mark to several charming dances. Rice and Cohen are using a new and clever sketch, "The Kitten." The stock company offers a sketch, entitled "The Man from Mexico," last week. The favorite monologist, Cliff Gordon, is once more expounding his peculiar political propositions. Charles R. Sweet furnishes amusement with his play, "The Acrobats and Herbet are giving their mixture of acrobatics and comedy. May Belfort charms with songs and recitations. The Brothers De Wynne are showing finished acrobatic work for their last week. Mills and Edna are giving their excellent cartoon work. Lowe-Lewin Martel exhibit skill on the xylophone. John Nestor gives beautifully illustrated songs.

Victoria Theatre (Oscar Hammerstein, mgr.)—The current week is notable for the engagement of Andrew Mack. His fine voice and acting powers shine out in the skit, entitled "Blarney." Another engagement is that of the favorite Broadway comedian, Harry Bulger, who, with a supporting company appears in a comedy, skit, entitled "The Soldier." The Princess Rajah, in her third month, is as much of a drawing card as ever. Her Cleopatra dance evokes much enthusiasm. James Harrigan draws laughter and wonder with work as a tramp juggler. Emma Derooy and company use a sketch, entitled "Dreamland" in their offering. Grafs baboons go through some wonderful tricks. Oscar Loraine has a novel musical act in which the violin predominates. McNamee uses some artistic clay modelling. Ryan and White are graceful and agile in several representative dances.

Yorkville Theatre (Frank Gersten, mgr.)—The long engagement of Mildred Holland at this theatre ends on Saturday night next. For her farewell performance she is appearing in The Lady of Lyons, in the role of Pauline Deschanelles, and Robert Connes that of Claude Melnotte.

Fourteenth Street Theatre (J. Wesley Rosenquest, mgr.)—Good business still continues, the vaudeville and moving pictures being up to the usual mark.

Huber's Museum (John H. Anderson, mgr.)—The curio hall and theatre hold the usual strong attractions, and this popular house is always crowded.

Harlem.—At Keith & Proctor's One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatre (E. F. Albee, mgr.) business was good last week. Bill week of March 22 includes: Mike Donlin and Mabel Hite, Press Eldridge, Carlin and Otto, Mr. Hymack, the Three Renards, Stafford and Stone, and as an added attraction, W. H. Thompson, in "Waterloo." Next week, J. K. Cookson, mgr.,—George Arliss, in "The Devil," is the attraction week of 22. Next week, Julia Marlowe, in "The Goddess of Reason." Metropolitan (Charles L. Walters, mgr.)—"Forty-five Minutes from Broadway," with Scott Welsh, as Kid Burns, appeared to a packed house 22 and met with a great reception. Next week, "The Ninety and Nine." Alhambra (Percy G. Williams, mgr.)—The week started, as usual, with standing room at a premium. The bill offers Max Irwin and company, "A Night on a Houseboat," Midge and Carlisle, Willy Pantzer Troupe, Mabel Barndine and company, George Mozart, Bootblack Quartette, Mr. and Mrs. Darrow, Marie Dalton, W. Decision for Belle Blanche.
The United States District Court has denied the motion made by Irene Franklin and Bert Green to enjoin Belle Blanche from imitating Miss Franklin's singing of "Red Head."

August Dreyer, attorney for Miss Blanche, argued successfully that the copyright in the song having been assigned to Leo Felst, he alone could ask for an injunction.

THE WHITE RATS HAVE "SOME" PARTY.

THE SECOND ANNUAL EVENT A HUGE SUCCESS.

The second annual costume reception of the White Rats was given Friday evening, March 19, and proved to be an enormous success. At an early hour the hall was well filled, and after the theatres had closed the Rats and their friends arrived in droves. During the grand march the dancing floor was filled with participants, and a line of spectators eight to ten deep surrounded them. The boxes were all filled.

The costumes were many, and numerous original ideas were shown by ladies and gentlemen, the costumes being set off by the various colored light effects.

Managers, performers, agents, music publishers, the press; in fact, members of all branches interested in the Rats, vied with one another to make the occasion a most memorable one. A handsome sum will undoubtedly be added to the Charity Fund of the association as a result.

The committee in charge of affairs included: Fred Sa-Hern, chairman; Joe Phillips, Frank Cook, Jack Mason, master of ceremonies; Signor Zarnes, Harry Stewart, Nat Harris, J. Warren, Wm. C. Smith, Jack Kioville, Edward Castano, W. W. Waters, Carl Stowe.

The grand march, led by Sam and Kittie Motion, and by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fuller Golden, was an intricate affair, and everybody who had a girl was in it. After its conclusion the marchers in costume paraded in competition for the prizes.

The judges were Lydia Barry, Elsie Fay and Lil Hawthorne.

Prizes were awarded as follows:

Ladies: First—Queenie Turner, for a novel automobile outfit; a Taylor trunk, presented by the Taylor Trunk Co.

Second—Mrs. Flo Barrows and Little Chas. Barrows, in spangled suits, representing U. S. A. White Rats; a handsome wig, presented by Hegner.

Third—Saddle Cantor, representing a basket of fruit; a pair of shoes, presented by Lella.

Fourth—Miss Zarrow, baton spinner; box of perfume, presented by Regard.

Fifth—Frances Clare, in a green spangled soukette dress, box of perfume, presented by Regard.

Gentlemen: First—Edward Esmonde, Indian costume, heavily beaded from head piece to slippers; a silk lined evening dress suit, presented by Regard.

Second—Gilligan and Murray, in black face; one dozen first class photos, presented by White.

Third—Van Cleve and Denton, coon and cow girl, shoes; presented by Mill.

Fourth—A. A. Alexander, policeman; six latest boxes, presented by the Broadway Publishing Co.

James J. Jeffries and party, including Sam Berger, arrived early, and had a joyous reception. Jeffries entered as a visitor in one of the boxes. Sam Berger had a dance or two. Jerry Hart met his friends, having returned from Europe only two weeks ago. He came over on the same boat with Tim McMahon, and he happily could not stay over there without Tim.

Sam Tauber was in early, enthusiastic over the song writers' contest which he has been promoting. He will shortly inaugurate similar contests in other big cities.

Spencer Kelly was resplendent in full dress, and enjoyed himself immensely.

Major Doyle wore one of the committee fully caps and a big shoulder badge. He escorted Frances Clare through the mazes of the march.

The novel committee insignia, including a fully cap and ribboned shoulder badge, made it easy to locate the adjusters, and the committee members wearing same, generated by General Manager Harry Mountford, were kept busy making everybody comfortable.

The Zarrow Trio, in handsome white stage costume, whirled their batons in the glare of the spotlight, while leading the procession.

Alexander Carr (Topikatzky) spent some pleasant moments.

James P. Dolan, accompanied by Mrs. C. circled through the boxes.

Mrs. Felix Reich, in a stunning boy's suit, fooled her friends for a long while before her identity was disclosed. Another fine boy was Willie Crawford.

The Perry Sisters, a baby and Colonial boy, did lively work on the perfect dancing surface.

Mayne Gehrue was there, accompanied by mother, and didn't miss a dance.

Bob DeLong came up from Atlantic City to participate in the party.

Rillie Seaton signed "Manhattan Theatre, indefinitely," and it looks as if she would be there until the Gimbels need the spot.

Mose Gumble, wearing a fully cap, was all smiles, and while his companion, Charles Vance, entertained royally in their box.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchman were host and hostess at a table surrounded by a large party of their friends.

Donald Griffin was kept busy shaking hands with those who knew him, and the list included everybody present. Mr. Griffin offered a prize for the Rat selling most tickets.

Joe Phillips did the Marathon looking after the dancers. Harry Stewart's services were also called for.

Charles B. Lawlor was there with his daughter, Aube, and Alice, answering pleas and bowdoses.

Irvin R. Walton fooled everybody by his excellent make-up as Eddie Foy. His suit was the center of attraction.

The CLIPPER REGISTER was a popular feature, and visitors stood in line to sign it. The register will be prized as a valuable souvenir of the occasion. Thanks to Mr. Mountford for the accommodations placed at our disposal, and to George E. Pierce, custodian, for the manner in which he lured them up, to register.

Elizabeth Heffernan, THE CLIPPER register, spotted all the wearers of novel costumes on sight and promptly secured their names.

Major Doyle wanted to have his name next to that of James J. Jeffries on the Register, but he could not push aside Sam Berger, who was next in line.

George Leslie, just back from an extended Western trip, held receptions in various places.

Maurice Shapiro did some fancy steps in the march, accompanied by Nora Kelly.

Dorothea Levy and Margaret Davis, in director gowns, attracted considerable attention by their showy method of dancing.

Dorothy Arville was a dashing Spanish dancer, and her pal, Florence V. Hall, was resplendent in a white pierrot suit.

The George Fuller Golden book, entitled "My Lady Vanderbilt," was on sale in the lobby, and a large number of copies were disposed of. The price was two dollars. The book includes an interesting history of the White Rats.

During the grand march the White Rats anthem was played by the orchestra and sung by the members. "A-T-A-S" rang out good and forte at the end of each verse. "Looks Like a Big Night To-Night" was also introduced in the march.

Jack Reid lost the Mrs. shortly after his arrival, but soon found her, surrounded by a large circle of well wishers.

The Halley Land Improving Co. issued a fine little ivory hand-mirror souvenir to the ladies.

Harry Leonard was well tired out by returning handclaps of those who could get near him.

Sam Scribner escorted two ladies in the march—one a little girl. He had won a little cap, and wore it with good effect. Later he posed as a special officer, and arrested various persons, who were fined a bottle of wine.

William Morris and brother, Hugo, also Mr. Berlinghoff, were kept busy bowing acknowledgment of "Haillos."

Queenie Turner, repeated as a winner of the first ladies prize, having carried off the honor last year with the White Rat. Joe is a fine originator.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mozart expressed their delight with the splendid reception. They will finish shortly their contracts with Mr. Williams. They will then leave for England, but promise to stay longer on their next visit.

Wm. J. Montgomery and Florence Moore were there, radiant after having received a large offer for continuous bookings next season.

Prof. Berlinghoff and his band furnished entrancing dance and promenade music, and the programme included all the latest selections, including four popular barn dances.

The first prize for gentlemen went to Borough Park, Mr. Esmond being the owner of a fine house at Fifty-third Street and Thirteenth Avenue. In his house Mr. Esmond has a fine collection of Indian relics, acquired during his travels in the Indian country, along with the Indian language.

The following is a copy of THE CLIPPER register:

THE TIME -- THE PLACE AND THE SONGS

★ JUNE, JULY AND AUGUST

BASEBALL

The Big Summer Song, by the most famous writers of the day, of "I Wish I Had a Girl" fame.

"Strike while the iron is hot." Now's the time to start with a "Home Run Hit."

WHEN YOU'VE GOT NO OTHER PLACE TO GO, GO HOME

A Coon Comedy Song. Send for it. Lead 'em, don't paddle after 'em.

TO-NIGHT

A Semi-High Class Ballad of exceptional merit. Beautiful in its simplicity and sentiment.

POOR OLD GIRL

This is a character comedy song. One big scream. Don't let it get away from you.

★ WILL YOU ALWAYS CALL ME HONEY

A Ballad of Originality. A new metre, not one of those "Done to Death" ideas.

★ I WANT A GIRL TO LOVE LIKE YOU

They don't write them any better than this one. "Another Natural Born Hit."

Send Programs and 10c. for Orch. Slides for Songs Marked ★, $4.00 Deposit. Orch. Leaders Send for Our Catalogue. Our Big Band Medley for 50c.

OUR CHICAGO LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

Western Bureau of the New York Clipper, 505 Ashland Block, Randolph and Clark Streets.

MARCH 20.—Interest in the local "showshops" will be divided this week, as far as new offerings are concerned between the Studebaker, to which Dustin Farnum returns after a week's absence from the city, in the first local presentation of "Cameo Kirby," the Great Northern, to which "The House of the Rising Sun" comes in repertory, and the Auditorium, which will house the Johnson-Burns fight pictures. E. H. Sothern will continue his engagement at the Garrick, and the houses which note the weekly changes will have more or less familiar offerings. St. Patrick's Day matinee will be a success at all houses except the Garrick, where the house was dark, and in the evening business was to capacity in nearly every theatre. The Barham & Bailey Show will be at the Coliseum week after next, opening April 1, and continuing through to 15.

ILLINOIS (Will J. Davis, mgr.)—Mabel Tallafiero starts her last week to-morrow night, in "Poly of the Circus," it having proven a very acceptable Lenten offering. Olga Netherale, in "The Writing on the Wall," which comes with the greatest of praise from our neighbor to the North, opens 29, for two weeks.

POWERS (Harry J. Powers, mgr.)—"The Thief," with business still holding up splendidly, and every one well pleased with the play and players. The engagement has been the most successful of the season at this house. "The Family," 28, with a strong cast, including Henry V. Donnelly (replacing Walter Burrows, who is ill), George Howard, Mabel Hunt, John Westley, Florence Fisher and Edith Spence.

GARRICK (Herbert C. Duce, mgr.)—So great was the advance sale for "Lord Dundreary," for Friday of this week, that the management wisely decided to substitute the old comedy for "Richard Lovelace," during the second week, giving "Richard" Thursday night and "Hill and Saturday" matinee. Studebaker's performance of the Cardinal this past week (his first local appearance in the role) met with praise from the papers. Gladys Hanson, Virginia Hammond, Sydney Mather, William Harris and Frederick Lewis were all accorded praise for various performances during the week. "The Great John Canton," a dramatization of "Ganton & Co.," 28.

AUDITORIUM (Milward Adams, mgr.)—"The Pollies of 1908" closes its long and successful run to-night, and the big company has given the best of satisfaction. The Johnson-Burns fight pictures 21, under the management of Wm. A. Brady, for two weeks.

COLONIAL (George W. Lederer, mgr.)—"Little Nemo," just finishing the second week of its six weeks' run here, has been delighting young and old, and the business has been very good indeed. The big spectacle causes wonderment from all who have seen it.

STUDEBAKER (Edward J. Sullivan, mgr.)—Viola Allen brings her successful engagement in "The White Sister," to a close to-night, having pleased nearly everyone who has seen the play, although it is set in gloom. Dustin Farnum, in "Cameo Kirby," comes 21, having tried the play out of town previously, and is supported by May Buckley, James Sackey, Gordon Johnson, Richard Pittman, James Seeley, John Harrington, George Deyo, Donald Gallagher, Matt Snyder, Nora Shelby, Maude Hosford, Ruth Lloyd and Gladys Williams.

McVICKER'S (George C. Warren, mgr.)—"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," as popular as ever, is attended by the crowds which have thronged McVicker's during the week, and the company is one of the best ever seen here. Henry Miller, in "The Great Divide," comes 28, for two weeks. Thais Lawton, formerly leading woman of the Bush Temple, plays the lead.

GRAND (Harry Askin, mgr.)—"The Head of the House," in which Ada Lewis is starred, failed to come up to expectations when first presented here evening of 13, although the company worked hard for the success of the play. It follows the general lines of other "servant question" plays, Homer Caldwell, a typical hard shell reformer, is running for assemblyman in New York City, without any idea of how to conduct his own election, which is in measure personally conducted. His one great idea is to do away with the gambling places, while his son, George, has been gambling at the den of Sidney Finch, an unscrupulous person, even for a gambler. George has been playing at the den of Sidney Finch, an unscrupulous person, even for a gambler. George has been playing at the den of Sidney Finch, an unscrupulous person, even for a gambler.

CHICAGO (George A. Kingsbury, mgr.)—"Via Wireless" has three weeks more, and as time goes on business improves, the public seemingly bent on seeing the big scenic and electrical effect of the wireless.

GREAT NORTHERN (Fred C. Diers, mgr.)—"The House of the Rising Sun," which has been a success at all houses except the Garrick, where the house was dark, and in the evening business was to capacity in nearly every theatre. The Barham & Bailey Show will be at the Coliseum week after next, opening April 1, and continuing through to 15.

"The Hell to the Hoorah" has drawn good houses this week, and the play has pleased all, being presented with a uniformly good cast. "Too-much" Shen, in repertory, 21; the Rays, in "King Casey," 28.

PRINCESS (William Singer, mgr.)—"The Prince of To-night" is gaining in popularity all the time, and business has been increasing accordingly. The music and the magnificent stage settings being very attractive, while the book has been greatly improved. The piece will probably run well into the hot weather.

LA SALLE (Harry Singer, mgr.)—Nothing approaching the magnitude of the finale of the second act of "The Golden Girl" has ever been seen on this stage in former years, and adding to this the clever lines and situations, and the exceptionally catchy music, it seems that the La Salle has one of the biggest successes of its career. Business has been very good.

WHITNEY (Frank O. Peers, mgr.)—"This House has been dark since last Sunday night, but will re-open to-night with 'The Boy and the Girl,' the new offering by Carl and Heitz, which has been tried out at Springfield this week.

COLLEGE (Charles B. Marvin, mgr.)—"Secret Service" has been most adequately presented this week, with Albert Morrison as Captain Thorne, and Charles McDermott as Miss Varney, while the other members have been splendid in their work, the piece being beautifully staged and rehearsed by Colin Campbell. "The Three of Us," 22, "The Lost Paradise," 29. The house will be dark Holy Week.

BUSH (Edwin Timmhouse, mgr.)—"The Sporting Duchess," with Adelaide Kelm in the title role, has drawn good houses this week, and was well done. "The Boys of Co. B" has been substituted next week for "Charles's Aunt," "The Pillars of Society," 29, this being the first professional performance of this play in Chicago.

PEOPLE'S (Charles B. Marvin, mgr.)—"Shore Acres" has been splendidly done this week, and the Westsiders have thoroughly enjoyed the beautiful old play. "Secret Service," 22, "The Three of Us," 22.

MARLOWE (Charles B. Marvin, mgr.)—"The New Magdalen" has been a fine drawing card here, and the audiences have had a great chance to shed tears. "Shore Acres," 22, "Secret Service," 29.

MAJESTIC (Lyman B. Glover, mgr.)—Business has held up to the usual standard this week with a fine bill. "Blanche Ring" is the headliner for the week of 15, the bill for which includes: Charlotte Parry and company, Cassell's dogs, Julius Tannen, La Veen, Rose and company, Huggler Sisters, Morrow-Schellberg, C. M. and Mrs. Perkins Fisher, Jarro, Herbert O'Connor and company, Cook and Oakes, and the kindred.

AMERICANS (E. F. Rogers, mgr.)—Nothing succeeds like success is well displayed in the business which this house has done since its opening. The bill for week of 22 includes: Lawrence Irving and Mabel Hackney, in "The King and the Vagabond," Jack Lorimer, Harold's dogs and monkeys, Emma Carr, Harry Van Thier, Gardner and Stoddard, the Saytons, the Chamberlains, W. J. McDermott, and the Morriscoke.

HAYMARKET (William F. Newkirk, mgr.)—Business is fine over on this side, and the bills have been great. For week of 22: "The Futurity Winner," Police Morris and company, Italian Trio, Redford and Winchester, Jack Gardner, Vera Berliner, Gaston and Green, George Daubach, Cleone Pearl Fell, Charles Martelle, and the kindred.

OLYMPIAN (Fred Acheson, mgr.)—Business has been fine here of late, with strong bills presented. Bill week of 22 includes: McIntyre and Heath, in their repertory of sketches; Edwin Holt and company, Augusta Glone, Fantastic Phantoms, Gen. Ed. Levin, George Fredo, Lizzie Doby, Von Tella and Nina, and the Olympian.

HIGH LIFE (M. Rose, mgr.)—Bill week of 22 includes: "Dumb-brook Fair," Stella Vincent, De Long and Campbell, Myrtle Edwards, Hart and Biala, Charles Torrey, Evelyn Fox, Rose Evans, Holis and Dillon, Brown and King, Beach and Remo, and illustrated songs.

ACADEMY (Wm. Roche, mgr.)—"Through Death Valley" has done a fine business this week, and proved a very enjoyable attraction. "The Candy Kid," 21, "At Cripple Creek," 28.

BLUET (Wm. Roche, mgr.)—"The Montana Limited" assisted in picking up the business very perceptibly, and the company was thoroughly satisfactory in all its branches. "Lena Rivers," 21, "Dora Thorne," 28, Ted Griffin has succeeded Arthur Ritchie as juvenile man.

CRITERION (John B. Hogan, mgr.)—"The Candy Kid" has pleased good audiences this week, and the company is a strong one. "The Phantom Detective," 21.

COLEMBUS (Weber Bros., mgrs.)—"The Christian" was finely given this week by the stock company, which is doing exceedingly well here, and the members have already come to be very much liked in the neighborhood. "The House of a Thousand Candles," 21, "The Hell to the Hoorah," 28.

ALHAMBRA (Weber Bros., mgrs.)—"In the Nick of Time" did very well this week and proved the kind of play the patrons of the house wish. "The Cowboy and the Squaw" 21, Selma Herman, in "A Bad Man's Wife," 28.

NATIONAL (Edwin Clifford, mgr.)—Yorke and Adams, in "Playing the Ponies," have enjoyed a very good week. "The Flower of the Ranch," with Frankie Drew, Frances Cosar, Edward Hume, Frederick Knights, John McSweeney, Walter Stanley and George Doolittle and a large supporting company, 21.

COLUMBIA THEATRE (W. P. Shaver, mgr.)—Calumet, Doring L. Conners, mgrs.—"The Devil" proved a very good drawing bill this week, and the people enjoyed it. "Out of the Fold," 21, "Bob's Uncle from Japan," 28.

CRISTAL THEATRE (Scheffer Bros., mgrs.)—Byron, Harriet Hosmer and company, McCarver and Robinson, Kohler and Victoria, Wayne G. Christy, and Brooks and Kingman. "LYCEUM THEATRE (Jack Burch, mgr.)"—Julius and Culling, Miller and Lyle, Temple Trio, Ed. Gilmore, and Berry and Bennett.

VIRGINIA THEATRE (J. V. Ritchey, mgr.)—Vina's Models, Wellington Bros., Nichols and Smith, Patrick and West, and Short and Edwards.

ESSEX THEATRE (Bilharz & Lewis, mgrs.)—Howard and Cunningham, the Jesses, Mack and Mack, and Pete Lora. "The Travellers come 21, with a large company, and several novelties in the burlesque field, which are thought to be strong enough to pack the house at every performance. The Thoroughbred," 28.

TRACEDERO (I. M. Weingarten, mgr.)—Harry Bryant's Burlesques have done very well this week. Clark's Runaway Girls come 21, including in the company: Arthur H. Kherns, Jack Crawford, the Great Carroll, Lee Keln, Joseph Perry, George Fager, Tom Elliott, Frank Fox, Frank Peck, Estelle Rose, Gloré Eller, Lottie Stone, Belle Smith, Helen Garabaldi, Katherine Moon, Maud Livingston, and a large chorus. "Salome and the Judge" is the burlesque, in the olio: "The Famous Ladies of the Bowery Comedy Quartette, the Great Carroll, Perry and Elliott, Estelle Rose and Gloré Eller, Rice & Barton 28.

EMPIRE (I. Herk, mgr.)—"The Broadway Gaiety Girls have done very well this week, and pleased Mince's Americans come 21, with a big company, including some special numbers in the olio. The Big Review 28.

STAR AND GARTER (U. J. Hermann, mgr.)—"The Casino Girls have enjoyed great popularity this week with a good attraction. The Monte-Santley Co. open 21, with added novelties for the olio, and business promises well. Henry Lee will be the big feature act for the week. The Blue Ribbon Girls 28.

LONDON DIMME THEATRE (W. J. Sweeney, mgr.)—"The constant change of attractions has kept an index of people which has been very gratifying to the management, and the season can be accounted a good one for this place.

AMATEUR.—Inness and Ryan sent me a very handsome St. Patrick's Day postal from St. Joe, Mo., with regards, stating that they were booked at the Majestic, Lincoln, Neb.

"The Girl from Rector's" will be seen at the International April 10, the house having been dark since Abramson's Opera Co. completed its engagement. In the company, which is said to be specially organized for Chicago, are Jeanette Lowrie (for the title role), Harriet Raymond, Vivian Blackburn, and others.

Cameron and Flanagan, two boys who are well known and liked hereabouts, are in their second week at the American Music Hall, in their very successful act, "On and Off," which never fails to get them many recalls at the close, and hearty laughter all the way through.

Bayonet Whipple opened at the Oregon last Monday afternoon for the Western Vaudeville Managers' Association, in her charming new catalogue, and made a decided impression on the people of that section of the Badger State. She has a charming personality and a beautiful singing voice which she uses to great advantage, besides having a keen sense of humor. Her success was such that she was moved up three numbers on the bill. The last three nights of this week she is at the Crystal, Manitowoc, and report says she has been equally successful there.

Barry O'Neill, stage director at the Bush Temple, has been very ill of late, and had to give up his work the first of the month until he was in condition to continue. Arthur McWatters and Grace Tyson have been giving their act this week at the American, and made a great hit, particularly in their burlesque of "The Thief," which was given at Powers'. Mr. McWatters' appearance as Kari Bell started the applause, and all his lines and business built up the entrance of Miss Tyson, as Marice, and from there on the laughter and applause were almost incessant. They deserve credit for securing an act of this kind, and also for the manner in which they dress and act it.

Some recent engagements made through Bennett's Dramatic Exchange, Chicago: Julia Earle and Chas. A. Lindholm, Grace Real's Vaudeville Co.; Mildred Johnson, Lee Kohler, and Vaudeville Co.; Adele Davis and Mille, Lee Marice, jobbing work. Shubert Theatre, Milwaukee; E. S. Ross, "Miss Petticoats" Co.; Eugene Dantell, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" Co.; Mayzel Denny and A. M. Zim, "A Royal Chef" Co.; Joseph Daffy, Indiana Theatre Stock, South Bend, Ind.; G. Tommasi and Thomas E. Pickett, Castle Opera Co.; F. E. Barclay, Allen Foster Vaudeville Co.; A. H. Fox and Claudia White, Winger Bros. Stock Co.; Llewellyn Watkins and Lloyd J. Wynne, Holden Bros. Comedy troupe, Chicago; Hal Loren, Sterling Stock, So. Chicago; Hal Briggs, Calumet Theatre Stock, So. Chicago; Alletta Servoss, Sanford Dodge Dramatic Co.; Mabel Kreuder, Harry Garriy Vaudeville Co.; Rosalind Verene, stock company, Sioux Falls, S. Dak.; Bessie Hawthorne and Wm. Hall, Jan. Corbett's "Facing the Music" Co.; Lorraine Buchanan, R. E. Russell, Thomas W. Keeney and wife, Edmund Dupont and wife, and Oliver Labadie, Coliseum Theatre Stock, Danville, Ill.; Maude Muller, Jack C. Horan and D. H. Lawrence, "Texas" Co.; Robert C. Bell, W. C. Chapman Stock, Rock Island, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Hutton, Franz Barnard and Archer and Garlow, Frank H. Daniels' Stock Co.; Helaine Hart, Hall McAllister's Vaudeville Co.; Joseph Southard, Walter McCullough, Joseph Sullivan, Helene Carroll, Francis Pierlot, Helen H. Davenport and Chas. B. Hawkins, Columbus Theatre Stock Co., Chicago.

Jim Calvin, the juggler, was a caller 18, having just returned from Hot Springs, where he had been for treatment for locomotor ataxia, for seventeen weeks. He has not been able to work since the last week in September, but hopes to be able to get busy again this summer. He is still obliged to use two canes, but is optimistic about the future. Eugene McGillion will have a stock company at Madison, Wis., this summer, and has already engaged Virginia Keating for the leading roles. Mark Helman, formerly treasurer of the Garrick, will manage the house, while McGillion looks after the stage.

Charles Barnold's monkeys and dogs kept the audiences at the American this week in a continuous roar of laughter, the animals being perfectly trained and exhibiting a high degree of intelligence, particularly the dog "Frank," whose business was the cause of excessive hilarity.

Louis Kelso, who was one of the hits of "A Winning Miss," when that musical comedy was on at the Garden Theatre, was a caller this week, and stated that he and his wife would go into vaudeville very shortly. Mrs. Kelso has a very fine voice, and has been understood for some of the grand opera singers throughout the country, and Mr. Kelso is recognized as a comedian of great value. While McGillion looks after the stage, Mr. Kelso jumped in to the part of "The Eyes That Never Sleep" at a moment's notice, to fill the place left vacant by Toby Lyons' illness, and made a great personal success.

It is thought probable that Blanche Bates will be here here, in "The Fighting Hope," before the end of the season, probably at the Garrick Theatre.

The three Saytons, on the American bill this week, proved one of the most pronounced hits of the vaudeville season, and the act was applauded to the echo. The all-star costumes which the men wear came in for much comment, as did that which the dog wears, and the canine caused lots of laughter by his pulling his "hide" across the stage after he had finished with it. They are wonderful acrobats, and deserved the ovation they received.

"The Alaskan" is scheduled to start its Spring run at the Great Northern, April 11, and it will be one of the largest productions ever staged there.

Mrs. Andrews, who has been catering to the profession for many years, and with every evidence of satisfaction, will move her establishment from 346 State Street, to 330, six doors north, April 1, where she will have a good week's run March 14-20. Frank Daniels 21-27, Nat C. Goodwin 28.

CRESCENT (T. C. Campbell, mgr.)—"Texas," with Frank Conway, pleased good audiences 14-20. "Little Johnny Jones" 21-27, Lew Dockstader 28.

GREENWAD (Henry Greenwald, mgr.)—"The Trocadero" enjoyed a big run with a clever show. The Night Owls 21-27, Jersey Lanes 28.

BLANEY'S (John V. McEwen, mgr.)—"The New Lyric Stock Co., 14-20, was seen to advantage in "The Rocky Mountain Express." "The Car King of the Coast" 21-27. Bill for 22 and week includes: Franklin Underwood and company, the Three Mosher Bros., Warren and Blanchard, the Graciers, Ollie Young and Bro., the Mozarts, and Tom Mahoney.

SHUBERT (J. W. Dubbs, mgr.)—"O. T. Crawford's moving pictures and illustrated songs."

WINTER GARDEN (J. Pearce & Son, lessee).—Moving pictures and vaudeville continue to good business.

EDEN MUSEUM (Dauphine & Isherville, mgrs.)—Another new place of amusement opened its doors to-night, to good business. The week's bill included: Mr. Parents, the Two Atkins, the Mysterious Oberits and Blanche Aldrich.

WEST VIRGINIA.—At the Court (E. L. Moore, mgr.)—"The Honeymoon Trail," March 16, 17, did well. Jas. K. Hackett, O. had good returns. Francis Wilson 26, Adelaide Thurst 27.

VIRGINIA (Chas. A. Feinler, mgr.)—"Jas. J. Corbett, in "Facing the Music," 15-17, did well. "The Royal Chef," 18-20, had good returns. "The Cat and the Fiddle" 22-24, Thurston, magician, 25-27.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Chas. A. Feinler, mgr.)—Week of 15 was dark. This house changed from vaudeville to stock, and the Franklin Stock Co. will hold the boards 22 and later, in repertory, at popular prices of 25. Cole and Johnson, Jimmie Pearce, Bartlett and Collins, Dickinson and Bronston, May Rose and company, and Pearl De Forest and company.

APOLLO (H. W. Rogers, mgr.)—Frollesome Lambs 22 and week.

Winkler & Kress Comedy Acrobats.

dilly through the Summer months, which is his latest time.

"Slam," the new comedy, in which Henrietta Crossman is making a bid for the public favor, will probably be seen here about Easter time.

Mrs. H. Starr, whose place at 367 South State Street, has been headquarters for actresses and actors for some years to get clothes in, will move one door North, to 365, May 1, this being next to the corner of Congress Street, and one block South of the Long-Candy-Kid's.

Richard C. Maddox, comedian with "The Candy Kid" for two seasons, was a caller this week, and says that the company has been very successful this season, and that they have about five weeks yet to play. They are at the Criterion, with the Academy next week.

Albert Morrison, leading man of the College Theatre, will have a Summer stock company of his own at the Burwood, Omaha, Neb., going there when the College closes, April 25.

The opera company which will be heard at the People's Theatre this Summer will have a preliminary two-week run at the Marlowe, commencing May 3. In the company will be heard Ethel Balch, Mabel Page, Chas. Huntington, Chas. Vaughan, Chas. Neilson, Lillian Allen, Jessica Mayhew, Samuel Lovett and William Connelly, with a chorus of forty. James A. Keane, a politician of this city, has secured the five-cent theatre on Ashland Avenue, near the corner of Garfield Boulevard, in which he will talk on political affairs.

Green the presentation of various moving pictures, starting this idea this week, and the novelty of it made a strong appeal to those interested in the political welfare of the city. It being probable that other nickel theatres will be used for the same purpose.

R. J. Weber, president of the R. J. Weber Theatrical Agency, who has written that he is more than satisfied with the advertisements which from time to time he has placed in "The Clipper," saying: "We have fifteen weeks' work for real good acts, thanks to 'The Clipper.' I don't know that I would do without it. Here is a list of the real good acts which have worked for me recently: The Johnsons, Agnes Mayer, Muehlers, Courtney and Jeanette, J. B. Henning, Lind, the Lowrys, Dickinson's dogs, Leland and Lee, Jack Howard, the Vandoren Bros., Fred Russell, Jimmie Leonard, Egan and his wife, Holzer and Goss, Geo. La Vette, Tom Christy, Polo, Burke and Farlow, the Brooks, the Drapers, the Bernards, Sommers and Otto, the Leagues, Ashner Sisters, the Winchester, Harris and Komper, Paul Linger, Halsey and Halsey, Dorin and Koplin, Prof. Hagen and company, Bush and Taylor, and others."

Prof. Frederick Starr, lecturer and anthropologist, will give a series of lectures in Music Hall, commencing April 1, and for three consecutive Thursdays, moving pictures and colored illustrations will assist in the entertainment, the order of subjects being "Mexico of To-day," "Samoa and the Fiji Islands" and "The Panama Canal."

TENNESSEE.—At the New Lyceum (C. Wels, mgr.) John Drew, in "Jack Straw," played to well filled houses March 15, 16. Madame Nazimova presented "Doll's House" and "Comtesse Coquette," 17, 18, to fine houses. Vanderbilt Glee Club, Tim Murphy 23, 24, "Paid in Full" 27, "The Blue Moon" April 14.

ORPHEUM (Max Fabish, mgr.)—Business was very good. "The Eight Original Madcaps," Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hughes, Hibbert and Warren, the Four Orans, the Rooney Sisters, Claudius and Scariet.

JEFFERSON (A. B. Morrison, mgr.)—"The Man on the Box" began, beginning 15, and "The Fighting Hope," 16, and drew well. The performance pleased. "Tennessee Tess" 22-27.

CASINO (Phil Isaac, mgr.)—Dark.

Nashville.—At the Vendome (W. A. Sheetz, mgr.) Madame Nazimova played "A Doll's House" and "Comtesse Coquette" to large business March 15, 16. John Drew, in "Jack Straw," drew big business 17, Frank Daniels, in "Hook of Holland," 18; "The Man of the Hour" 19, 20.

BLUET (Geo. H. Hickman, mgr.)—"The Gambler of the West" week of 15. "On Trial for His Life" week of 22.

GRAND (Geo. H. Hickman, mgr.)—Manager Hickman rents his business on the increase at every performance, and there are four daily. Bill for week of 15: McCall Trio, Ben Fagan, the Three Kobers, moving pictures and illustrated songs.

TRACEDERO (W. P. Shaver, mgr.)—Business good. Bill for week of 15: Wally Clark, Rigley and Reed, the Mildred Comedians, International Quartette, Prevoll, the Devil's Deputy, and motion pictures.

CRYSTAL (Wm. Wassman, mgr.)—Business good with motion pictures and illustrated songs.

LOUISIANA.—At the Tulane (T. C. Campbell, mgr.) "Paid in Full" enjoyed a good week's run March 14-20. Frank Daniels 21-27, Nat C. Goodwin 28.

CRESCENT (T. C. Campbell, mgr.)—"Texas," with Frank Conway, pleased good audiences 14-20. "Little Johnny Jones" 21-27, Lew Dockstader 28.

GREENWAD (Henry Greenwald, mgr.)—"The Trocadero" enjoyed a big run with a clever show. The Night Owls 21-27, Jersey Lanes 28.

BLANEY'S (John V. McEwen, mgr.)—"The New Lyric Stock Co., 14-20, was seen to advantage in "The Rocky Mountain Express." "The Car King of the Coast" 21-27. Bill for 22 and week includes: Franklin Underwood and company, the Three Mosher Bros., Warren and Blanchard, the Graciers, Ollie Young and Bro., the Mozarts, and Tom Mahoney.

SHUBERT (J. W. Dubbs, mgr.)—"O. T. Crawford's moving pictures and illustrated songs."

OUR LONDON LETTER.

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

Clipper Bureau, 14 Leicester Street, Leicester Square, London, W. C.

MARCH 12.

Charles Frohman interested himself greatly in the production of a play, called "Strife," at the Duke of York's Theatre, on Tuesday afternoon. It is the work of John Galsworthy, best known as a novelist, but also as the writer of several interesting plays done at the Court Theatre, under the direction of Vedreine & Barker. "Strife" is more than an interesting play. It is a remarkable study of a labor struggle. There is no "love interest," and there is no "comic relief." If it should happen that "Strife" is played tonight, and succeeds, it will be in complete dis-repute of convention. He is just the audience assembled in the Duke of York's Theatre on Tuesday afternoon was certainly held powerless in the grip of the dramatist.

In the story it develops that when the men employed at the Fregenda Iron Works, in Wales, concluded to strike, they had a grim opponent in John Anthony, the chairman of the board. The hard old man had been through four labor wars, and always emerged the victor. He was confident he would do so again. He would hear no talk of compromise. John Anthony was not an unrighteous old man. A belief in the sacred rights of capital was with him, a religion. He bent the other directors to his will. They were men of varying characters, all fine studies. The leader of the men was David Roberts, a crazy idealist, willing to sacrifice all he held dear to the cause of labor. The fight was stern and awful. It involved misery, starvation, death. The directors intrigued against their dictator and overthrew him. The men intrigued against their leader, and overthrew him. Then the war was ended, on terms of compromise literally identical with those propounded before the fight began. The last impressive incident in the play was a meeting of John Anthony and David Roberts, broken men, crying each other with hatred, and yet with respect. At least, they were warriors. Mr. Galsworthy, in his play, avows no special sympathy with either party.

Later, the following letter from Miss Dressler to her comrades was published: "That I am not able to continue the fight with you all is due to fate which I fear has been against me. I only care for my company, which I was proud of and loved, and I am too ill to explain myself as I should like to; but I want you to know that I mortgaged everything I had in the world to pay you last week. I thank you for your attention and able support, and God knows I wish you all luck." Miss Dressler's popularity here is very great. Rarely has a player come into this city with methods so characteristic and unconventional, and made such a deep impression. If anybody could have carried the weight of an unattractive play on her shoulders, Miss Dressler might. But "Philopena" was old fashioned and would have been second class in the eighties.

If it had been competent for the directors of the Tivoli to dispense with their company on Monday and to devote the night to Harry Lauder, the audience would have been satisfied, and the other performers might have been saved heartburnings. For they never got a look-in. The house was packed; enthusiasm was without restraint. Lauder sang an old song, "Sandy McNab," and two new ones, "Bonnie Lezlie Lindsay" and "I've Loved Her Since She Was a Baby." In this he gives an elaborate study of a slow, Scot courier. The comedian was smothered in floral tributes, and the experimental production of speech. To-morrow night there is a public dinner at the Cafe Monico in Lauder's honor. Sir Thomas Dewar, the whisky knight, who has many close friendships in the vaudeville world, notably with Walter Kellie, will take the chair.

"Hamlet" should have been played at the Lyceum on Tuesday, but was held over until to-night, because Mattheson Lang had a stubborn cold.

Just to keep on the level with her husband, Mrs. Lewis Waller is doing "The Three Musketeers" in sketch form at the Oxford Music Hall. She plays Milady, and her son, Lewis Waller Jr., plays d'Artagnan.

Louie Pounds broke her wrist while roller skating the other day, but she had it set, and acted at the Lyceum on Tuesday. "The Dashing Little Duke," the same night.

Evelyn Beerholm, who played a small part quite well in "The Head of the Firm," at the Vaudeville, is a nephew of Beerholm Tree. Oscar Asche and Lily Braxton produce "Count Hunchback" at Bristol on Thursday. They sail for Australia very soon.

George Edwards, Robert Courtneidge and Henry W. Savage have arranged to produce "The Devil" at the Adelphi, on April 17.

For a month, Courtneidge will produce the Shaftesbury Theatre. Robert Courtneidge means to squander $25,000 on rejuvenating the house, and he reopens it with a new musical comedy.

"Captain Kidd" is the name of the new musical play which Seymour Hicks has shaped from "The Dictator." It will be produced here in mid-May, at a theatre not yet indicated. Zena Dare will play the part originally identified with Marie Doro.

Weedon Grossmith is anxious to have it known that when he opens at the Criterion shortly, for a season, it will be as responsible manager. He will produce a play by R. C. Carton, in which he will have the aid of Miss Compton, who is Mrs. R. C. Carton.

Last night of "The Belle of Brittany" at the Queen's Theatre are now announced. I understand that the leading performers were stockholders in the syndicate running this piece. The next production will be Eastern in color—a musical comedy, written by Leedham Bantock, and composed by Sydney Davis, both Vincent and George Graves will be in the cast.

Charles Hawtrey opens the Royalty Theatre on Saturday, with "The Noble Savage," adapted from the French by Somerset Maugham. The Royalty is reckoned an unfortunate house. But "Charles's Aunt" was produced here.

Charles Frohman says he is working on a scheme for London, so far ahead of the millionaire's theatre for New York that it makes him laugh.

Alexander Henderson, Charles Wyndham's man of business, has taken "The Three Theatres" on the side, and will shortly produce a new play, by Arthur Law, with Annie Hughes for its heroine. She made a great hit in this writer's "Country Mouse."

John Ashwood withdraws "The Truants" immediately. For her next production at the Kingsway Theatre, namely, of a modern, topical play, by James B. Fagan, she has taken in a partner, Otto Stuart, who lately ran the Adelphi.

Constance Collier is safe home from America, but only on a vacation.

Lewis Waller will soon put up a new play in succession to "The Three Musketeers," at the Lyric. It is an adaptation by Constance Fletcher, of Balzac's novel, "The Countess De Langens." Maxine Elliott will impersonate that naughty dame.

Norman Craig, who ran a bogus theatrical agency, taking fees from girls on the pretense that he would put them on the stage, has been sent to prison for six months.

Beerholm Tree, who has been ill, is again appearing in "The Dancing Girl," at His Majesty's Theatre.

No fewer than 20,000 children have been fed this winter in the soup kitchens organized and constantly visited by Ellaline Terriss.

Herman Vezin, who lately celebrated his eighteenth birthday, has a son, Arthur, on the stage, now appearing with George Alexander's company on the road, in "A Builder of Bridges."

During the summer, the Moody Manners company will run a season of opera in English at the Lyric Theatre.

Forbes Robertson went to the city the other day and pleaded with a gathering of business men for the record of votes to women.

Constance Dreyer, a clever graduate of the George Edwards' companies, goes to Paris immediately to play the leading part in the production of "The Merry Widow" there.

A man who figured in the police courts the other day said he had played a small part with H. B. Irving's company. Mr. Irving denies this, and, in the course of a letter addressed to the newspapers, angrily repudiates the habit of such fellows associating themselves with the stage.

A society of unacted authors has been formed here. The idea is to secure the consideration of manuscripts by an unbiased reader, and the experimental production of those they approve, for choice by struggling actors and actresses.

Ensuing to the recent action of the censor of plays who refused to allow the Folies to burlesque "An Englishman's Home," there is another order, mostly made by dramatic authors who desire the abolition of the office. But it is not believed there will be any result. It may be noted that nine theatrical managers in ten think very well of the censorship.

It was incumbent on Drury Lane pantomime to outlive all the others; but the end must come. It is, in fact, announced for Wednesday next.

Charles Brookfield has been a sufferer from pneumonia, but he is much better.

Arthur Bourchier and his wife, Violet Vanbrugh, think of an Australian tour next year.

It has been held by the Gloucester magistrates that an automatic machine, called the crack-shank, is an instrument of gaming. If the crack-shank were successful, the crack-shank could be inserted in the slot was returned to him, nothing more. The magistrate imposed a small fine—that means nothing. The importance of the decision is the precedent it establishes. If this be maintained, thousands of machines will be put out of operation. The slot machines used here are, I would say, as to ninety per cent. of American make.

Miss Roy, known as the Birmingham gladiator, died lately at Cardiff. She had traveled the world over with Barnum & Bailey.

Jessie Preston is again working the London Vaudeville houses.

Granville Barker is a member of the committee appointed by the Board of Trade to consider a revision of the Berne copyright convention; also George Ranken Askwild, who has acted as arbitrator in the recent musical hall disputes.

Somerset was summoned to the police court on a charge of assaulting the musical director of a Gibson's hall, the Great Lafayette has been bound over to keep the peace. The magistrate allowed that Lafayette had been greatly provoked.

Newell and Niblo sail for home immediately. Mrs. Newell's health has suggested the trip.

James J. Morton decided to look over Paris this week.

Howard and Harris came to the Palace Theatre, where they are much liked, on Monday.

Hoss and Grayson are again at the London Pavilion.

Marie Lloyd is making a hit with a song about an old maid, who lives in hopes, if she should die in despair.

Three little Lenos took part in a pantomime played by performers' children, at the Assembly Rooms, Batham, a London suburb.

Once more the chief justice has expressed his sympathy with the profession. In a not specially important libel case at Liverpool he said he would not allow anything to stand in the way of an actress eager to establish her good name. The instant was vital.

Sahara, the dancer, has established her right to prevent another dancer from using her name and act. She also got the court to agree that an educated snake is worth two dollars more than an uneducated snake.

A money testimonial promoted for the manager of a series of vaudeville houses was quickly and firmly suppressed by the directors. The feeling in the profession is that this praiseworthy attitude should have been adopted long ago. The committee was mostly made up by agents.

Gus Elen has been a sick man; but he hopes that a week at Brighton will shake off the influenza and enable him to open at the London Coliseum week of March 22.

Sell Kerton claims the gift of memorizing a long part in it be read over to him once. He is making a great hit with a character study of an old Scottish postman.

Topsy Slinden, the delightful dancer, has just completed an engagement in pantomime at Bristol. She returns to vaudeville immediately.

Morris Cronin opened at the Empire with his club act on Monday. He will doubtless stay some weeks. He has, after infinite pains, completed the electrical auxiliaries of his act. At the end the stage is darkened, the clubs become glowing lamps, and as they fly through the air, produce the effect of an extremely fine pyrotechnical display. Mark Melford, the missing music hall performer, is has suffered terribly by reason of the growth of syndicate halls in the neighborhood.

Vesta Tilley sails for New York on March 26. She will be accompanied by her husband, Walter de Frece, who now books his circuit in connection with the Moss & Stoll halls.

A new revue by George Grossmith Jr. will shortly be installed at the Empire, where this farlous form of entertainment is becoming slowly but surely acclimatized.

George All thinks of running a sketch in vaudeville for the introduction of his Buster Brown dog.

Competition between film makers is very keen here just now in respect of pictures suggested by "An Englishman's Home," the patriotic play at Wyndham's Theatre.

Arthur Huhle, a member of Zerenard's Lilliputian Circus Co., fell and broke his leg while practicing at the Leeds Empire last week.

Phil and Nettie Peters are still working on the outskirts of London. They appear at the Grand Clapham, next week.

Julius Jordan was compelled to do a single "turn," the first time for many years at the Empire, last week. His partner, Harvey, was ill.

Carrie De Mar, still playing Stoll houses, comes to the Empire, New Cross, on Monday.

Juan A. Calcedo, who now combines agency with rope walking, is off to South America immediately.

Sam Collins, the American comedian, was a visitor to the CLIPPER Bureau yesterday.

Maud Allan has got an order of the courts forbidding the announcement of Maud Benton and Ashley open at the Oxford on Monday, for four weeks, with their new sketch, "Adam the Second."

Walker and May exposed coon songs and dance to Scottish folk at Dundee next week.

Cincinnati.—The closing of the Lyceum as a melodramatic centre was the first hard blow suffered by that form of amusement here. Now it is announced that in another week Heuck's Opera House will turn its back on the old policy and enter the field of vaudeville and moving pictures. This may be but temporary, but the declaration is made that this will be the style of entertainment to be given all through the summer.

MUSIC HALL.—The Metropolitan Opera Co. presents Alessandro Bonci, Mmes. Rapold and Flahart, and Herbert Witherspoon, March 20. The absence of an opera season gave the concert more than ordinary prominence.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE (Rainforth & Havlin, mgrs.)—Olga Nethersole, March 22, in "The Handwriting on the Wall." Last week, "The Soul Kiss," with Adeline Gnee, did good business. Francis Wilson 29.

LYRIC (Heuck Opera House Co., mgrs.)—De Wolf Hopper 21-27, in "The Pied Piper." The English Opera Co., in "Madam Butterfly," with Adelaide Norwood and Louise Collier alternating in the title role, enjoyed a profitable stay. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" 28.

OLYMPIC (Geo. F. & Luella Forepaugh Fish, mgrs.)—Forepaugh Stock Co. 21, in "The Idler." Ida Adair returns to the cast. Emma Blomere was seen in "Madame Sans Gene" last week. "The Idler" 28.

COLUMBIA (Anderson & Ziegler, mgrs.)—Fadette Ladies' Orchestra 21. Others: Lavinia Shannon and company, in "Brain Storms." Three Athletes Sisters, Howard and Howard, Slivers and Artie Nelson, Bert Howard and Edie Lawrence, A-Ba-Ba's Pictorial Post Card Album, and Sue Smith.

WALNUT STREET (Anderson & Ziegler, mgrs.)—R. E. Rork's company presents "The Land of Nod" 21. Last week, Howard Thurston, the magician, aided by Paul Kleist, played to good houses. "Graustark" 28.

HEUCK'S OPERA HOUSE (Heuck Opera House Co., mgrs.)—Selma Herman, in "A Bad Man's Wife" 21. Last week, Joe Finkler was seen in "A Home Run." Moving pictures and vaudeville 28, for which "Thorns and Orange Blossoms" was originally booked.

NEW ROBINSON (Coney Holmes, mgr.)—The O'Farrell Langford Company, C. Porter Norton, the Tuscano Brothers, and Ryuo and Emerson 22-27. Last week's crowds were as good as ever.

LYCEUM (Ben D. Crose, mgr.)—M. Samoy, Shannon and Straw, Gardner West and the Cuban Pickaninny "Sunshine," and the Armon Trio 21-27. The audiences are large.

AUDITORIUM (Auditorium Theatre Co., mgrs.)—Eddy Adair and his Four Girls 21-27. Others: George Hussey and wife, in "The Seven of Us," and La Dare and Warner Trio. New pictures, business good.

MINER'S MERRY BURLESQUES 21. The Avenue Girls did well last week. Washington Society Girls 28.

STANDARD (R. K. Hynicka, mgr.)—The Casino Girls 21. Very good business for the Italian Rounders last week. Rentz-Santley Co. 28.

GOSSIP.—Mischa Elman, violinist, and Waldemar Lichowsky, pianist, were heard in a matinee recital 18, at the Grand Opera House. . . . Minnie Elliot Tenney talks on "Ireland, the Land of the Shamrock" at the Lyric travelogue series, 21. . . . George F. Fish is in Chicago, attending a meeting of the stock managers of the country.

Columbus.—At the Southern (Wm. Sanders, mgr.), the Ben Greet Players and the Russian Symphony Orchestra entertained well filled houses March 15. Otis Skinner played 16. "The Land of Nod" entertained good business 17, 18. Olga Nethersole entertained well filled houses 19, 20. Adelaide Thurston 24. "The Soul Kiss" 25-27.

KEITH'S (W. W. Frosser, mgr.)—Week of 22: "Hirland," Pearl and Yocco, Alba Chasino, Harry and Wolford, Felix and Arnold, and Harold Knigh.

COLONIAL (J. V. Howell, mgr.)—Ye Colonial Players secured an interesting week of 15, in "The House of a Thousand Candles," and drew capacity business. For week of 22, "The Eternal City."

HIGH STREET (Chas. W. Harper, mgr.)—"Graustark" pleased good business 15-17. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," with Charley Lum, a local boy, came to good business 18-20. Ethel May, "The Mystery Girl," was an added attraction. Jas. J. Corbett 22-24, "Montana" 25-27.

GAXTRY (Al. Wiswell, mgr.)—Phil Sheridan's City Sports pleased good business week of 15. For week of 22, Parisian Wildows.

COLUMBUS (G. Sachs, mgr.)—This house was the first of the local moving picture shows to sever its connection with the film trust and join the independents. The films of the International Projecting and Producing Company, of Chicago, were the cause of filling this house to capacity for the entire week. Week of 22 Ruth Ardelle and Edna Leslie, Lou Gordon, Billy and Flemming, and Eugene Lala.

NOTES.—Neddermyer's Big Band entertained capacity at Memorial Hall on Sunday evening. Herman Belstedd, of Cincinnati, was the soloist, and made a big hit. . . . The Metropolitan Quartette pleased a good sized audience at Memorial Hall 17. . . . Herman Belstedd Jr. was tendered a reception by the local musicians union at its hall on Sunday night. The Wyandotte Film Exchange is handling the films of the independents, the International Projecting and Producing Company, of Chicago.

Mansfield.—At the Memorial Opera House (Albaugh & Doughty mgrs.), "The Man from Home" pleased a good audience March 15. "The Land of Nod" 16, had large attendance. Boston Grand Opera Co., in "Il Trovatore," gave good satisfaction 17. "Peck's Bad Boy," 18, had moderate business. "Montana" 20, "Graustark" 23. "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" 26. "The Cat and the Fiddle" 30. "Paid in Full" April 1.

ORPHEUM (Eddie Veezy, mgr.)—Good attendance. Bill for 22 and week: Goodwin and Lane, Christian Lane, Kitty Fay and company, Sidney Toledo, and others.

Toledo.—At the Valentine (H. A. Smith, mgr.) Lulu Glaser played to capacity March 13. Walker Whiteside was considered one of the best attractions booked here this season. "The Melting Pot" drew packed houses 15, 16. Olga Nethersole 17. "The Merry Widow" 18-20.

LYCEUM (E. R. Kelsey, mgr.)—"School Days" had capacity 14-20. Al. H. Wilson 21 and week.

EMPIRE (Harry Winters, mgr.)—The Blue Ribbon Girls drew well 14-20. Hilda Carle and her Twelve Red Ravens are the big hit. Phil Sheridan's City Sports 21 and week.

ARCADE (Will Bettis, mgr.)—Sautenelli, the hypnotist, heads the bill. Burt's (J. O. Hooley, mgr.)—Pearl Touhey was the star attraction 14-20.

FAMILY (Edw. Gruber, mgr.)—Moving and talking pictures continue.

Hamilton.—At Smith's (Tom A. Smith, mgr.) the Boston Belles drew well March 13. "Montana" did a good business 14. Miami University Glee Club 19. James J. Corbett 21. "Graustark" 27. "Mrs. Temple's Telegram" 28.

GRAND (Ward & McCarthy, mgrs.)—Week of 14: Three Leisenings, in "Fun at the Circus," the Most Twins, White and Sanford, Jennie Le Fevre and Frankie St. John, Four Flying Valentines, and the bioscope. Large nightly crowds.

NOTE.—Mr. McCarthy was in Louisville 11, looking after his interests in that city.

Dayton.—At the Victoria (G. C. Miller, mgr.) Ben Greet Players drew good houses March 16. Otis Skinner 18. "The Land of Nod" 20. Adelaide Thurston 22. Paderewski 27.

NATIONAL (Gil Burrows, mgr.)—The Four Huntings 18-20. "The Black Beauty" 22-24. James Corbett 25-27.

LYRIC (Max Hartig, mgr.)—Bill week of 22: The Six English Rockers, Tom Jack Trio, Ray Cox, Myers and Rosa, Hoey and Lee, Richmond and Bevelle, Sam Curtis and company, and the Lyricoscope.

Lima.—At the Faurot (L. H. Cunningham, mgr.) James K. Hackett played to big business March 16. "Shawn Aroon" (local) played to capacity 17. Francis Wilson 18. "Tempest and Sunshine" 20. "Paid in Full" 22. "Graustark" 24. Boston Grand Opera Co. 25, 26. "The Lion and the Mouse" 27.

At a recent special meeting of the Board of Governors held at the Monastery, preliminary arrangements were crystallized for the annual Friar Festival, which will take place in all probability early in May. Friar Oscar Hammerstein has generously offered the Manhattan Opera House for all the routine details. To simplify matters, Friar Secretary Willard D. Coxey was appointed to take charge of the general publicity of the festival in connection with his work as editor of The Epitaph.

One of the important actions of the board was the appointment of Friar W. H. Bartholomew as business manager of the festival, and on him will fall the routine work so ably handled by Friar Harry Alward last year. There will be a number of committees, and each will do its work in its own way, but the business manager's office will be a general "clearing house" for all the routine details.

To simplify matters, Friar Secretary Willard D. Coxey was appointed to take charge of the general publicity of the festival in connection with his work as editor of The Epitaph.

The entertainment committee is headed by Friar Governor Harry Doel Parker, and the work of organizing a great programme for the festival is already under way.

There is already a great deal of interest in the festival, and there is no reason to doubt that the remarkable success of last Spring will be duplicated.

The work of arranging Friar headquarters in the various cities throughout the country has, to a great extent, fallen on Friar Treasurer John W. Rumsey, in association with Friar Wallace Munro, chairman of the Itinerant Committee. Chairman Munro, who knows the country backward, has furnished Friar Rumsey a tentative list of desirable places for the proposed headquarters, and with this as a basis Friar Rumsey has sent out over a hundred and fifty letters, explaining what is desired, and endeavoring to arouse the interest of Friars in other cities in the plan.

In practically every instance a favorable reply has been received, and before long it is hoped that it will be possible to publish a definite and authentic list of the official headquarters in the various cities.

As soon as practicable registers will be furnished, with places for the name of the Friar registering, permanent address, company with, ahead or behind, theatre playing, length of stay, where stopping and date of leaving town.

The Friars are going to give a dinner at the clubhouse on Saturday, March 27, at 11.30 P. M., to the advance agents of the Barnum & Bailey, Ringling Brothers and Buffalo Bill's Wild West outfits. The guests of honor will be Louis J. Cooke, Major John M. Burke, James J. Brady and Willard D. Coxey. The Monastery dining room will be turned into a circus tent, the floor will be covered with sawdust, and clowns and cowboys will be waiters. It looks like a big night.

The new pool and billiard parlor will be opened about the first of April.

DONNA SEYMOUR writes: "I was granted a divorce from Samuel Pickett, in Judge Barne's Court, Chicago, on March 13."

World of Players.

MANAGER I. G. MOWBRER writes: "I am having good success in engaging people for my dramatic company that opens in September, and also for both my vaudeville companies that open in May. I receive THE OLD RELIABLE every week, and can say I would prefer it to my meals on the day I get it. My main dramatic company will be good, high class performances of Western productions, written especially for my own use. I shall use my utmost endeavors to make it a success. Our feature will be a cowgirl military band of thirty ladies, dressed in cowgirl costumes. The plays I am having written are to be full of snap and vim, and they will be as realistic as it is possible to make them, and as I have had some years experience as a cowboy in the West I can judge each drama, and see if it comes up to the standard or not before going on the road with it."

NOTES FROM FRED K. BRUSH'S "Out in Idaho" Company.—This company has been playing to big business through Northern New York, Canada and New Hampshire. Frederick K. Brush, the owner and manager, visited the show at Barre, Vt., last week. The roster of the company is as follows: W. S. Bates, general agent; James J. Shalvey, acting manager; Jimmie De Vale, musical director; Lew Williams, Harry Dean, E. Richard Keene, Edwin Franklin, Frank Dunham, Paul S. Bell, Dorothy Kurts, Vera Belmont and Maude Belmonte. Williams and Kurts are getting four and five encores nightly, with their new song and dance skit, and Vera Belmonte is a decided hit with her Dutch songs. Manager Brush intends to lay the company off the last three days in Holy Week, re-opening again April 12, for the summer season, which will run about twenty weeks. Up to the present time there has been but one night's lay-off, and that was on account of illness.

THOMAS THORNE has been engaged by Harrison Grey Fiske for the part of Dopey McKnight, in "The Gay Life." Roy McCordell's comedy, which will have its metropolitan hearing early in April.

JACK PERCY, a member of the McWarin Co., while playing in Vincennes, Ind., suffered a severe injury from the explosion of a powder can, used in the action of the play. His hands were burned and lacerated, and several small bones were broken. A doctor was hastily summoned, and at last reports he was resting quietly, and his injury will not prove serious.

THE WILSONS write from Gaffney, S. C., under date of March 8, that the Bagger & Alton Stock Co., of which they were members, closed at Spartanburg, S. C., on March 1, leaving the members of the company in a destitute condition. They also send the following: Manager Greenwood, of the Harlowe House, kindly tendered the actors the use of his house and orchestra for the week, and we played to almost $1,000 on the commonwealth plan, thus giving everybody a nice little sum. The members of the company are: D. M. MacDor, Artie Wilson, Hal Denton, Ed. Hansford, Ross Wilson, E. V. Lash, J. F. Topping, Josie Maddox, Nellie Denton, Henrietta Wilson and Margaret Ragan.

NOTES FROM Carl M. Dalton's "Tilly Olsen."—We have done a nice business through Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, and are now on our way North, taking in the Dakotas, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The CLIPPER is always looked for on our "ghost" day, which is every Sunday. The roster of the company: Carl M. Dalton, proprietor and manager; P. H. Wheeler, advance; A. F. Rockfield, stage carpenter; Robert Brown, properties; Mrs. O. F. Rockfield, musical director; Edward Mayo, Almee McCormick, Verma Irene Dalton, Minnie McVickers, Byrd W. Harrison and Master Jack Dalton.

ETHEL FILMORE, of "Fluffy Ruffles" Co., whose name in private life was Queenie Ethel Carr, was married in the rectory of All Angels' Church, New York City, on March 17, to Herman Lee Meado, a non-professional.

NOTES FROM the Crane & Greenwood Attractions.—We are pleased to state that we have enjoyed a very profitable season with all our companies. The Crane Stock closes its very successful season April 24, rests for one week, and re-opens on the New England time. The musical comedy "Uncle's Millions," closes May 1, rests three days, and then opens on the Maine time, booked until Sept. 6. The regular Fall season of "Home from Harvard" will play New England time, after closing April 24. "The Devil" company closes May 15, after a very successful season. Stanley Greenwood will play leads in the stock. "The Town Talk" opens April 24, on the New England time, and is bigger, better and more attractive than ever. We have had the pleasure of getting THE OLD RELIABLE every week.

HARRY BRADBURY, who was business manager for A. W. Cross' production of "The Three of Us," starring Elizabeth Aldrich, has resigned in order to get things in shape in the publicity department of the Minelli Bros. Shows. He will be general agent for that well known amusement organization. The Minelli Bros. are progressive, and this season their show will be a great improvement over their previous efforts. Many new features will be added, and the season will open about the first of May.

FRANK S. RIKD writes: "I am spending a few weeks at Cambridge City, Ind., at the Winter quarters of Buskin Hen's Wild West Shows, as I have joined the show for the advance and press work for the Summer season. At the close of the tenting season, I will organize and take out my own company, to be known as the Franklin Square Stock Company. I will play Ohio, Indiana, Michigan and Pennsylvania, and intend to present a new idea altogether to the opera house managers with my company. Bookings will be made during the Summer, as I expect to open about Oct. 1."

ARTHUR STRANFORD (Mac Elwell), an actor, of 103 West Fifty-fourth Street, New York City, in a voluntary petition in bankruptcy gives liabilities of $1,851 and assets of $108.

WALTER HARMAN, business manager of "Parasol," was married on March 7, to Blye Power, a member of that company, at Waseca, Wis.

ELLEN VOCKEY SIFPERT has again taken up dramatic and costume musical recitals, and has located in Washington, D. C.

TRANSFORMER

FOR MOVING PICTURE MACHINES

(ALTERNATING CURRENT)

SIMPLE COMPACT EFFICIENT

THIS TRANSFORMER, KNOWN AS "THE G. E. ECONOMY-ARC," must of necessity be an invaluable adjunct to any alternating current moving picture installation. THE ADVANTAGES OF A TRANSFORMER FOR THIS WORK WILL BE APPRECIATED BY BOTH THE THEATRE MANAGEMENT AND OPERATOR; BY THE MANAGEMENT in the reduction of light bills and in the better production of the pictures due to the steady light obtained, AND BY THE OPERATOR in the simplicity of the device, the absence of danger from shocks, and the added comfort in the lamp house due to the low heating.

PRICE, $75.00

THE SAVING IN POWER INSURED BY THE USE OF A TRANSFORMER INSTEAD OF A RHEOSTAT VARIES FROM 65 TO 90 PER CENT, depending upon the voltage from the supply mains. Many lighting companies require the use of 220 volts for moving picture work in order to avoid heavily loading one side of a three-wire system. This increases the loss considerably in circuits using a resistance or reactive device for reducing the voltage.

EDGAR DANRELL, whose advertisement appears corrected in this issue, has just closed his second season with Monte Thompson, playing leads, and is anxious to again return to permanent stock, where he has been quite successful in the past, in Lincoln, Neb.; Deadwood, S. D.; Evansville, Ind., and a number of other Western cities.

KITTIE NICE PERLE has closed with the Manhattan Opera Co., after having sung prima donna roles consecutively for nine months, two performances a day, without interruption. The press has been unanimous in praise of Miss Perle's artistic work and splendid soprano voice, throughout the larger cities of the South.

ROBERTS AND LITTLE close a pleasant and successful season with Park B. Prentiss' "Zeke, the Country Boy," Co., at the Curtis Theatre, Denver, March 27. They join A. D. McPhee's big company, at Medina, N. Y., April 5. Mr. Roberts to do the characters, and Maybell Little, the juvenile leads.

G. L. SPOFFORD writes: "My wife and self have just closed our season with Jas. D. Barton's production of 'The Devil,' through the South. My wife, Florence S. Hastings, played Olga, and I the part of Heinrich. We have returned to our home on Staten Island, where we will rest for a few weeks."

OSCAR JONES, formerly manager of D. B. Levis' attractions, has retired from the road, on account of poor health, and entered the real estate business in his old home town of Winchester, Ind. He reports success, so far. His many friends are familiar with his hustling ability, and are cordially invited to make his office their headquarters while playing his city.

NOTES FROM THE McCORD STOCK CO.—While playing Missouri and Kansas we were compelled to close, on account of illness, but will open again in our big waterproof tent. Mr. McCord will use a special made tent this season, made in Kansas City. It will have a seating capacity of 1,000, stage 20 by 30, and we will carry all special scenery for each play. Sixteen people will be the line up this Summer. Among them will be some of the people who were with us last Winter. Jess Myers and F. J. McCord will have charge of the advance, while Lonnie Myers will have the privileges with the show, with one assistant. Mrs. McCord has not fully recovered her health, but is gaining strength rapidly. She is at present visiting with her family in the South, while Mr. McCord is at Winter quarters, getting things in shape for the Summer.

as the Princess, will be opened soon on Markham, opposite the New Capital Hotel.

KENTUCKY.

Louisville.—At Macaulay's (J. T. Macaulay, mgr.) Frank Daniels, March 15-17, in "Hook of Holland," had good business. "A Girl at the Helm" followed 18-20, drawing big houses. "The Soul Kiss" 22-24, Otis Skinner 25-27.

Masonic (Weber Bros., mgrs.)—"The Black Beauty," week of 15, attracted good sized houses. Rose Melville 22-27.

AVENUE (Frank Shriner, mgr.)—"It's Never Too Late to Mend," week of 14, drew good crowds. The Four Huntings 21-27.

BUCKINGHAM (Horace McCracklin, mgr.)—Miner's Merry Burlesquers, week of 14, had crowded houses. Washington Society Girls 21-27.

MARY ANDERSON (J. L. Weed, mgr.)—Week of 21: Adelaide, Hennings, Lewis and Hennings, Frank White and Lew Simmons, Valadon, La Petite Mignon, Wells and Sells, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beane, Floyd Mack, and the kinodrome.

NOTE.—John H. Whallen, of Whallen Bros., proprietors of the Buckingham Theatre, who has been seriously ill the past month, has entirely recovered. He will leave next week for a trip to the Pacific coast before resuming business.

PADUCAH.—At the Kentucky (Carney & Goodman, mgrs.) "Polly of the Circus" March 17, 18, had big business. "The Cow Puncher" 20, "The Yankee Doodle Boy" 27, Adelaide Thurston 29, "Paid in Full" 30, "The Man of the Hour" 31.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Charlotte.—At the Academy of Music (Jno. L. Crovo, mgr.) Joseph and William Jefferson, in "The Rivals," March 16, played to good business. William H. Crane 17, "Fifty Miles from Boston" had a good advance sale 18. Florence Davis, in "Under the Greenwood Tree," 21.

NOTE.—Moving picture shows continue to do good business.

REPORTS at hand speak very highly of Estelle Gibson, who replaced Letty Holmes, in E. J. Carpenter's "At Cripple Creek" Co.

RELEASED MARCH 22

THE DAY OF THE DOG

"Every dog has his day," says a proverb. It is also true in this instance when the workman stands before the question of saving his employer or letting him perish in the flames. His better self prevails, and he saves his foe.

LENGTH, 710 FEET

OUR ICE SUPPLY

This is a beautiful short picture showing how the ice is cut, transported by the chutes and stored for future use.

LENGTH, 200 FEET

RELEASED MARCH 25

A JUST REWARD

This is an exceptionally fine subject. The villain gets his reward, so does the heroine. The picture is full of dramatic action from start to finish.

LENGTH, 645 FEET

MAD DOG

A tiny little dog and a lot of big people form the foundation of this comic picture. A little boy, who is frightened by the little dog's playful barking, starts the trouble.

Dear Hank:—Me an' Brunette Liz has signed a dog an' monkey road show, doin' B. & O. (not railroad). She does the Circassian act, slips the tickets (we split the graft), counts up an' puts the monks through stunts. I'm master of transportation (we walk), feed the brutes, wash 'em, be nurse, bark when the dogs don't, drive stakes (not eat 'em), all fer $10 per an' cakes. Sounds bad but looks good to me. I'm $340 to the bad, but got a new Taylor Circus with seat attachment (draped in my old one); it's all the candy. I'll write from the seat next week. If you've an old pair of jeans, express 'em prepaid; police are after mine; no foundation to 'em; slip in a pair of Regals too. Say, Hank, someone said "It's H—I to be poor." But they didn't know; I'm the original; you've got to hand it to me. Write me to Wheaton, Ill. We walk there, and play in a field 3 miles from nowhere. Say! Ain't show biz great. Yours, Rubie.
